Ward (Jr.), 2017 Machine generated contents note Foreword by H Jack Geiger Introduction From South Africa to Mississippi Community Organizing Delivering Health Care Environmental Factors The Farm Co op Conflict and Change Epilogue Bibliography      You Can't Eat Freedom Greta de Jong, 2016-08-30 Two revolutions roiled the rural South after the mid 1960s the political revolution wrought by the passage of civil rights legislation and the ongoing economic revolution brought about by increasing agricultural mechanization Political empowerment for black southerners coincided with the transformation of southern agriculture and the displacement of thousands of former sharecroppers from the land Focusing on the plantation regions of Alabama Louisiana and Mississippi Greta de Jong analyzes how social justice activists responded to mass unemployment by lobbying political leaders initiating antipoverty projects and forming cooperative enterprises that fostered economic and political autonomy efforts that encountered strong opposition from free market proponents who opposed government action to solve the crisis Making clear the relationship between the civil rights movement and the War on Poverty this history of rural organizing shows how responses to labor displacement in the South shaped the experiences of other Americans who were affected by mass layoffs in the late twentieth century shedding light on a debate that continues to reverberate today

The Story of Drama Gary Day, 2016-08-25 Tracing the history of tragedy and comedy from their earliest beginnings to the present this book offers readers an exceptional study of the development of both genres grounded in analysis of landmark plays and their context It argues that sacrifice is central to both genres and demonstrates how it provides a key to understanding the grand sweep of Western drama For students of literature and drama the volume serves as an accessible companion to over two millennia of drama organised by period and reveals how sacrifice represents a through line running from classical drama to today's reality TV and blockbuster movies Across the chapters devoted to each period Day explores how the meanings of sacrifice change over time but never quite disappear He charts the influences of religion social change and politics on the status and purposes of theatre in each period and on the drama itself But it is through a close study of key plays that he reveals the continuities centred around sacrifice that persist and which illuminate aspects of human psychology and social organisation Among the many plays and events considered are Aeschylus' trilogy The Oresteia Aristophanes' Women at the Thesmophoria Menander's The Bad-Tempered Man the spectacles of the Roman Games Seneca's The Trojan Women Plautus's The Rope the Cycle plays and Everyman from the Middle Ages Shakespeare's King Lear and A Midsummer Night's Dream Middleton's The Revenger's Tragedy Jonson's Every Man in His Humour Thomas Otway's The Orphan William Wycherley's The Country Wife Wilde's A Woman of No Importance Beckett's Waiting for Godot Tennessee Williams's A Streetcar Named Desire Suzan-Lori Parks's Topdog/Underdog Sarah Kane's Blasted and Charlotte Jones's Humble Boy A conclusion examines the persistence of ideas of sacrifice in today's reality TV and blockbuster movies Report of the Commissioner of Education, 1878 Charity Alive Mary Olga McKenna, 1998 Charity Alive Sisters of Charity Halifax 1950
