Nikolai's Fortune Solveig Torvik, 2012-11-27 As a child Solveig Torvik heard stories of a lost mysterious great grandfather who left Finland for America to make his fortune leaving Torvik's great grandmother and his unborn daughter behind As a reporter Torvik determined to discover the fate of the man who followed his dreams to Oregon She uncovered not only the story of one man but also the saga of an entire family In Nikolai's Fortune a tale of Scandinavian women the journalist turns fact into fiction and shares the tales of her ancestors as she imagines they would have told them Nikolai's Fortune is a heartbreaking multigenerational epic chronicling family secrets and sufferings against the backdrop of Scandinavian history and culture Blending memoir and historical fiction grandmother mother and daughter each share their own story Kaisa of her mother's love for Nikolai and her own 500 mile trek at the age of twelve from impoverished Finland across the snowy mountains of Lapland Berit of child slavery and an obsession with seeking out her grandfather's fortune for her mother and Hannah the voice of Torvik of her childhood during the Nazi occupation of Norway and her family's emigration to Idaho Through detailed historical research into census church and weather records as well as academic and museum sources Torvik recaptures a dramatic story nearly lost to memory and inherits something worth more than a fortune in riches a sense of her family history ethnic background and the generations of remarkable women who came before her Norwegian born Solveig Torvik was a reporter editor and columnist at the Seattle Post Intelligencer for thirty years She was also a reporter for United Press International in Salt Lake City and for the San Francisco Chronicle and an editor at the San Jose Mercury News Imdeduya Gunter Senft, 2017-07-12 This volume presents five variants of the Imdeduya myth two versions of the actual myth a short story a song and John Kasaipwalova's English poem Sail the Midnight Sun This poem draws heavily on the Trobriand myth which introduces the protagonists Imdeduya and Yolina and reports on Yolina's intention to marry the girl so famous for her beauty on his long journey to Imdeduya's village and on their tragic love story The texts are compared with each other with a final focus on the clash between orality and scripturality Contrary to Kasaipwalova's fixed poetic text the oral Imdeduya versions reveal the variability characteristic for oral tradition This variability opens up questions about traditional stability and destabilization of oral literature especially questions about the changing role of myth and magic in the Trobriand Islanders society which gets more and more integrated into the by now literal nation of Papua New Guinea

Forged From Silver Dollar Li Feng, 2015-04-28 Deeply moving story of self sacrifice and pride Jennifer Byrne Australian Women's Weekly One family's epic tale of survival in tumultuous twentieth century China Li Feng grew up in Mao's communist China with her mother's motto burning in her ears Success demands two things unconditional sacrifice and absolute mental focus Finally breaking free of her mother's overbearing clutches and fleeing to Sydney as an adult Li struggled to make sense of her own lost childhood by piecing together her family's history What she found was a heartbreaking tale of love and loss that echoed across four generations of women from Silver Dollar who fought to regain her dignity and change her destiny after being sold into a loveless marriage at the age of 13 to Ming Xiu who was forced to make a choice no mother should ever have to make following the execution of her husband to Li's mother Rong who grew up as an outcast on the periphery of society but never gave up hope of a better life for herself and for her daughters Despite economic and political upheaval these women battled to offer their children a better future through sheer determination in the face of unimaginable adversity Forged From Silver Dollar is an inspiring true story about Modern China iron will and the strength of a mother's love

The Trobriand Islanders' Ways of Speaking Gunter Senft, 2010-07-19 Bronislaw Malinowski claimed in his monograph Argonauts of the Western Pacific that to approach the goal of ethnographic field work requires a collection of ethnographic statements characteristic narratives typical utterances items of folk lore and magical formulae as a corpus inscriptionum as documents of native mentality This book finally meets Malinowski s demand Based on more than 40 months of field research the author presents documents and illustrates the Trobriand Islanders own indigenous typology of text categories or genres covering the spectrum from ditties children chant while spinning a top to gossip songs tales and myths The typology is based on Kilivila metalinguistic terms for these genres and considers the relationship they have with registers or varieties which are also metalinguistically distinguished by the native speakers of this language Rooted in the ethnography of speaking paradigm and in the anthropological linguistics linguistic anthropology approach the book highlights the relevance of genres for researching the role of language culture and cognition in social interaction and demonstrates the importance of understanding genres for achieving linguistic and cultural competence In addition to the data presented in the book its readers have the opportunity to access the original audio and video data presented via the internet on a special website which mirrors the structure of the book Thus the reader can check the transcriptions against the original data recordings This makes the volume particularly valuable for teaching purposes in general Austronesian Oceanic documentary and anthropological linguistics and ethnology
