Bretelle-Establet,2010-06-16 How do Documents Become Sources Perspectives from Asia and Science Florence Bretelle Establet From Documents to Sources in Historiography The present volume develops a specific type of critical analysis of the written documents that have become historians sources For reasons that will be explained later the history of science in Asia has been taken as a framework However the issue addressed is general in scope It emerged from reflections on a problem that may seem common to historians why among the huge mass of written documents available to historians some have been well studied while others have been dismissed or ignored The question of historical sources and their unequal use in historiography is not new Which documents have been used and favored as historical sources by historians has been a key historiographical issue that has occupied a large space in the historical production of the last four decades in France at least

Religion and Social Conflict in South Asia Bardwell L. Smith,2021-12-06 India, Europe and Conflict Resolution in South Asia Dr Rajendra K Jain, 2015-01-15 South Asia has been a region which has witnessed five full scale interstate conflicts where adversaries are major Asian powers armed with nuclear weapons and where no country has been free from insurgencies and separatist movements. Containing eight essays by Indian and European experts, this volume examines the genesis, nature and features of the European Union's policy of conflict resolution. It examines the causes, consequences and prospects of conflict in South Asia. It evaluates the role of the European Union in conflict resolution in Afghanistan, Myanmar, Nepal and Sri Lanka. It also assesses Norway's role in conflict resolution in Myanmar. The study will be of interest to all those engaged in the fields of political science, international relations, conflict studies and Indian and South Asian politics and foreign policy.
