Six Chapters Of A Floating Life Fu Sheng Liu Ji English And Chinese Bilingual:

The Methuen Drama Handbook of Theatre History and Historiography Claire Cochrane, Jo Robinson, 2019-10-31
Shortlisted for the 2021 TaPRA Edited Collection Prize The Methuen Drama Handbook of Theatre History and Historiography is an authoritative guide to contemporary debates and practices in this field The book covers the key themes and methods that are current in theatre history research with a particular focus on expanding the object of study to include engagement with theatre and performance practices and the development of theatre histories around the world Central to the book are eighteen specially commissioned essays by established and emerging scholars from a wide range of international contexts whose discussion of individual case studies is predicated on their understanding and experience of their local landscape of theatre history These essays reveal where important work continues to be done in the field and most valuably draws on academic contexts beyond the Western academy to expand our knowledge of the exciting directions that such an approach opens up Prefaced by an introduction tracing the development of the discipline of theatre history and changing historiographical approaches the Handbook explores current issues pertaining to theatre and performance history research as well as providing up to date and robust introductions to the methods and historiographic questions being explored by researchers in the field Featuring a series of essential research tools including a detailed list of resources and an annotated bibliography of key texts this is an indispensable scholarly handbook for anyone working in theatre and performance history and historiography

The Cultural Revolution on Trial Alexander C. Cook, 2016-11-07 The trial of Cultural Revolution leaders including Mao's widow and her Gang of Four was the signal event in China's post Mao transition In its wake Chinese socialism emerged from the rubble of the Cultural Revolution to create the China that we know today This spectacular show trial was a curious example of transitional justice marking a break from the trauma of the past a shift to the present era of reform and a blueprint for building a better future In this groundbreaking reconstruction of the most famous trial in Chinese history Alex Cook shows how the event laid the cornerstone for a new model of socialist justice at the same time a comparison of official political and legal sources with works of popular literature reveals the conflicted cultural dimensions of this justice The result Cook argues saved Chinese socialism as ruling ideology but at the cost of its revolutionary soul

Memory, Fluid Identity, and the Politics of Remembering Li Li, 2016-06-21 The Chinese Cultural Revolution is the single most important internal social event in contemporary Chinese history The plethora of history literary and artistic representations inspired by this event are critical to our understanding of the diversified often contested interpretations of contemporary China Li Li's critical examination of autobiographic filmic and fictional presentations in Memory Fluid Identity and the Politics of Remembering The Representations of the Chinese Cultural Revolution in English speaking Countries demonstrates that memory works not only reflect memories of those who lived through that period but memories about their past and more importantly about their identity remapping and artistic negotiation in a cross cultural environment

Eco-Translatology (Hugs) Gengshen Hu, 2020-03-06 This book offers a panoramic view of the emerging eco paradigm of Translation Studies known as Eco Translatology and presents a systematic study of the theoretical discourse from ecological perspectives in the field of Translation Studies Eco Translatology describes and interprets translation activities in terms of the ecological principles of Eco holism traditional Eastern eco wisdom and Translation as Adaptation and Selection Further Eco Translatology approaches the phenomenon of translation as a broadly conceived eco system in which the ideas of Translation as Adaptation and Selection as well as translation as a textual transplant promoting an eco balance are integrated into an all encompassing vision Lastly Eco Translatology reinforces contextual uniqueness emphasizing the deep embeddedness of texts translations and the human agents involved in their production and reception in their own habitus It is particularly encouraging in this increasingly globalised world to see a new paradigm sourced from East Asian traditions but with universal appeal and applications and which adds to the diversity and plurality of global Translation Studies This book the first of its kind will substantially expand the horizons of Translation Studies a field that is still trying to define its own borders and will open a wealth of new possibilities Destined to become a milestone in the field of Translation Interpretation and Adaptation Studies as well as eco criticism it will introduce readers to a wholly new epistemological intervention in Translation Studies and therefore will open new vistas of thoughts discussion and criticism
