In 2000 Gao Xingjian became the first Chinese writer to receive the Nobel Prize for Literature followed by Mo Yan in 2012 and writers such as Ha Jin and Da Sijie have also become well known in the West. Despite this progress the vast majority of Chinese writers remain largely unknown outside of China. This book introduces the lives and works of eighty contemporary Chinese writers and focuses on writers from the Rightist generation Bai Hua Gao Xiaosheng Liu Shaotang writers of the Red Guard generation Li Rui Wang Anyi Post Cultural Revolution Writers as well as others. Unlike earlier works it provides detailed often first hand biographical information on this wide range of writers including their career trajectories major themes and artistic characteristics. In addition to this each entry includes a critical presentation and evaluation of the writer's major works a selected bibliography of publications that includes works in Chinese works translated into English and critical articles and books available in English. Offering a valuable contribution to the field of contemporary Chinese literature by making detailed information about Chinese writers more accessible this book will be of interest to students and scholars. Chinese Literature Contemporary Literature and Chinese Studies Eleanor Heartney, Helaine Posner, Nancy Princenthal, Sue Scott, 2013-11-04 Why Have There Been No Great Women Artists asked the prominent art historian Linda Nochlin in a provocative 1971 essay. Today her insightful critique serves as a benchmark against which the progress of women artists may be measured. In this book four prominent critics and curators describe the impact of women artists on contemporary art since the advent of the feminist movement. Women Artists News, 1994 The Reckoning Eleanor Heartney, Helaine Posner, Nancy Princenthal, Sue Scott, 2014-05-12 The authors of After the Revolution return with an incisive study of the work of contemporary women artists. In After the Revolution the authors concluded that the battles may not all have been won but barricades are gradually coming down and work proceeds on all fronts in glorious profusion. Now with The Reckoning authors Heartney Posner Princenthal and Scott bring into focus the accomplishments of 24 acclaimed international women artists born since 1960 who have benefited from the groundbreaking efforts of their predecessors. The book is organized in four thematic sections. Bad Girls profiles artists whose work represents an assault on conventional notions of gender and racial difference. History Lessons offers reflections on the self in the context of history and globalization. Spellbound focuses on women's embrace of the irrational subjective and surreal while Domestic Disturbances takes on women's conflicted relationship to home family and security. Written in lively prose and fully illustrated throughout this book gives an informed account of the wonderful diversity of recent contemporary art by women. An indispensable contribution to the literature on contemporary art by women. Whitney Chadwick author of

Women Art and Society In the 2007 book After the Revolution Women Who Transformed Contemporary Art the authors set a new standard in documenting and evaluating the work of a dozen key women artists spanning generations between the 1960s to the 2000s The beat goes on with the appearance of The Reckoning written by the same authors in the same accessible scholarly style but reflecting important historical changes over the past decade and more In line with the increased presence of women in mainstream art the book includes twice as many artists as its predecessor And its global reach has expanded vastly stretching from Europe and the Americas to Africa and China Holland Cotter The New York Times

Women Artists News Book Review, 1993 Women Artists in History Wendy Slatkin, 2001 A chronologically organized overview of female artists through the centuries with 110 illustrations Chinese Landscape Painting as Western Art History James Elkins, 2010-06-01 This is a provocative essay of reflections on traditional mainstream scholarship on Chinese art as done by towering figures in the field such as James Cahill and Wen Fong James Elkins offers an engaging and accessible survey of his personal journey encountering and interpreting Chinese art through Western scholars writings He argues that the search for optimal comparisons is itself a modern Western interest and that art history as a discipline is inherently Western in several identifiable senses Although he concentrates on art history in this book and on Chinese painting in particular these issues bear implications for Sinology in general and for wider questions about humanistic inquiry and historical writing Jennifer Purtle s Foreword provides a useful counterpoint from the perspective of a Chinese art specialist anticipating and responding to other specialists likely reactions to Elkins s hypotheses Inside/out Asia Society. Galleries, San Francisco Museum of Modern Art, 1998-01-01 The late twentieth century has been marked by momentous political economic and social change throughout the Chinese world Deeply rooted cultural assumptions and ancient visual traditions have been challenged by rapid modernization and conflicting global ethnic and local identities Inside Out New Chinese Art was the first major international exhibition to explore the impact of these challenges on artists in the People s Republic of China Hong Kong Taiwan and those of the 1980s Diaspora The multifaceted exhibition and accompanying catalog encompass an extensive range of artistic forms including installation video and performance art as well as more traditional media such as oils and ink The art is grouped according to themes some specific to regions and others that reflect widespread and overlapping trends With the inclusion of ambiguous territories like Hong Kong and Taiwan the exhibition opens up a perspective of modern Chinese art from the outside as well as a looking out from the inside The catalog features essays by eminent Chinese art scholars and curators along with leading curators and historians of Western art Together they promote Chinese art s rightful place in the contemporary global cultural arena and at the same time acknowledge the influence of its rich heritage The diversity and freshness of the exhibition reflects the explosion of creativity among Chinese artists during the past decade The ironic social commentary of Li Shan s The Rouge Series no 24 the apartment art of artists reacting against the traditional patronage of large museums and corporations and Wang Jin s sly humor in portraying consumer fetishes in today's China are a few examples of the spirited artistry awaiting the viewers of Inside Out: Women of Chinese Modern Art Doris Sung, 2023-12-31 Winner of the SECAC Award for Excellence in Scholarly Research and Publication Bringing to light the largely overlooked female participation in domestic and international art worlds this book offers the first comprehensive study of how women embroiderers traditionalist calligraphers and painters including Shen Shou Wu Xingfen Jin Taotao and members of Chinese Women's Society of Calligraphy and Painting shaped the terrain of the modern art world and gender positioning during China's important moments of social cultural transformation from empire to republic Drawing on a wealth of previously unexhibited artworks rare artist's monographs women's journals personal narratives diaries and catalogs of international expositions Doris Sung not only affirms women's significant roles as guardian and innovator of traditionalist art forms for a modern nation but she also reveals their contribution to cultural diplomacy and revaluation of Chinese artistic heritage on the international stage in the early twentieth century The Golden Key: Modern Women Artists and Gender Negotiations in Republican China (1911-1949) Amanda Wangwright, 2021-08-16 The first monograph devoted to women artists of the Republican period The Golden Key recovers the history of a groundbreaking yet forgotten force in China's modern art world Through its detailed examination of the lives and careers of six female artists Guan Zilan Qiu Ti Pan Yuliang Fang Junbi Yu Feng and Liang Baibo this book argues that women were central to the emergence of modernist art in early twentieth century China and to the nation's larger modernization project Amanda S Wangwright's analysis of a wealth of primary sources demonstrates how these women constructed public personas negotiated space within art societies applied feminist thought to their artistic praxis and surmounted obstacles to their careers wielding art as the golden key to professional advancement and gender equality Encyclopedia of Contemporary Chinese Culture Edward Lawrence Davis, 2005 First Published in 2009 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Paris and the Art of Transposition Angie Chau, 2023-12-11 A brief stay in France was for many Chinese workers and Chinese Communist Party leaders a vital stepping stone for their careers during the cultural and political push to modernize China after World War I For the Chinese students who went abroad specifically to study Western art and literature these trips meant something else entirely Set against the backdrop of interwar Paris Paris and the Art of Transposition uncovers previously marginalized archives to reveal the artistic strategies employed by Chinese artists and writers in the early twentieth century transnational imaginary and to explain why Paris played such a central role in the global reception of modern Chinese literature and art While previous studies of Chinese modernism have focused on how Western modernist aesthetics were adapted or translated to the Chinese context Angie Chau does the opposite by turning to Paris in the Chinese imaginary and discussing the literary and visual artwork of five artists who moved between France and China the painter Chang Yu the poet Li Jinfa the art critic Fu Lei the painter Pan Yuliang and the writer Xu Xu Chau draws the idea of transposition from music theory where it refers to shifting music from one key or clef to another or to adapting a song originally composed for one instrument to be played by another Transposing transposition to the study of art and literature Chau uses the term to describe a fluid and strategic art practice that depends on the tension between foreign and familiar new and old celebrating both novelty and recognition a process that occurs when a text gets placed into a fresh context Art in Turmoil Richard King, Sheng Tian Zheng, Scott Watson, 2010-01-01 Forty years after China's tumultuous Cultural Revolution this book revisits the visual and performing arts of the period the paintings propaganda posters political cartoons sculpture folk arts private sketchbooks opera and ballet and examines what these vibrant militant often gaudy images meant to artists their patrons and their audiences at the time and what they mean now both in their original forms and as revolutionary icons reworked for a new market oriented age Chapters by scholars of Chinese history and art and by artists whose careers were shaped by the Cultural Revolution offer new insights into works that have transcended their times

"Life Stories of Women Artists, 1550-1800" Julia K. Dabbs, 2017-07-05 The struggles and achievements of forty six notable women artists of the early modern period as documented by their contemporaries are uniquely brought together in this anthology The life stories presented here are foundational texts for the history of art but since most are found only in rare volumes and few have been translated into English until now they have been generally inaccessible to many scholars Originally published in biographical compendia such as Vasari's Lives of the Artists the writings included here document not only the lives of relatively well known women artists such as Artemisia Gentileschi and Sofonisba Anguissola but also those who have languished in obscurity like Anna Waser and Li Yin Each life story is preceded by a brief introduction to the artist as well as to her biographer and the texts themselves are annotated to provide necessary clarification Beyond their documentary value these stories provide fascinating insight as to how men commonly characterized women artists as exceptions to their sex and attempted to explain their presence in the male dominated realm of art The introductory chapter to the book explores this intriguing gender dynamic and elucidates some of the strategies and historical context that factored into the composition of these lives The volume includes an appended index to women artists life stories in biographical compendia of the period Feminist Periodicals, 1996
