Szreter, 2012-10-12 This volume deals with the great changes which have taken place in the practice of the history of education in present years It brings together a number of important articles on the subject which are not easily available to the ordinary reader

Becoming Teachers Peter Cunningham, Philip Gardner, 2004 Fills an inexplicable gap in the published history of schooling in the twentieth century featuring the voice of the teacher telling his or her own story set alongside more conventional commentary

Educational Reconstruction Gary McCulloch, 2013-09-05 This book presents a clear overview of the debates that surrounded the making of the 1944 Act which affected every aspect of education in this country It gives a detailed account of the tripartite divisions into three types of child that were sanctioned in the reforms of the 1940s At the same time it also emphasises the idea of education as a civic project which underlay the reforms and which was such an important part of their lasting authority The education policies of the past decade and the current attempts to shape a new education settlement need to be interpreted in a long term historical framework and in particular in relation to the aims and problems of the last great cycle of reform in the 1940s This book makes an important contribution to the development of such a framework and the social history of education policy in this country

Study of Education Pb Peter Gordon, 2018-10-24 First published in 1980 This collection of inaugural lectures shows clearly the many changes which have influenced the university study of education during the period 1965 to 1978 1 Perhaps the most important has been the expansion in university student numbers which by 1963 was more than double the pre war figure

The School Textbook

William E. Marsden,2013-01-11 A study of the school textbook grounded in historical and comparative perspectives The approach is broadly chronological revealing changes in the theory and practice of textbook production and use The book focuses largely on three associated subjects geography history and social studies The Education of Slow Learning
