Situated Literacies David Barton, Mary Hamilton, Roz Ivanič, Roz Ivanič, 2000 This is a varied collection of key writings from leading international scholars in the field of literacy It makes a timely and important contribution to literary practices essential reading for anyone involved in literary education Literacy and Education Kate Pahl, Jennifer Rowsell, 2005 If we take the book Literacy and Education Understanding New Literacy Studies in the Classroom seriously it may help us teachers in training teachers in the field teaching theorists and researchers to learn more about ourselves and our teaching Journal of Early Childhood Literacy the best introduction to the theory and practice of New Literacy Studies available today for teachers though policy makers and researchers should also read it James Paul Gee University of Wisconsin Madison This long awaited accessible text shows how key research strands into the nature of contemporary literacy can reinvigorate classroom practice Technological advances have transformed literacy practices in all spheres of learners lives and Pahl and Rowsell show through real examples how pedagogical practice can accommodate these developments This is a must for all those involved in all levels of literacy education Dr Julia Davies Deputy Head of the School of Education The University of Sheffield Literacy and Education Understanding the New Literacy Studies in the Classroom is a practical guide to applying New Literacy Studies in primary secondary and family literacy contexts It represents a comprehensive look at how to rethink redefine and redesign language in the classroom to meet contemporary needs and skills of students based on current literacy research theory and practice Each chapter profiles key themes within New Literacy Studies including literacy and identity multimodality and multiliteracies bridging home school literacy practices and literacy and globalization The book follows an accessible format with multiple activities in each chapter theory boxes highlighting seminal research and theory suggestions for classroom design and planning ideas and New Literacy Studies assessment framework and vignettes of New Literacy Studies and Multiliteracies classrooms in Britain and Canada as well as a comprehensive glossary of terms Literacy and Education Understanding the New Literacy Studies in the Classroom brings research and practice together and is a valuable resource for teachers in training practising teachers and students studying literacy education at the graduate level Allan Luke Dean Centre for Research in Pedagogy and Practice Singapore prefaces the book with a look to the international importance of understanding and implementing New Literacy Studies in pedagogy and practice Jim Cummins Professor OISE University of Toronto concludes the book with an eye to local settings and the necessity for us to accommodate the diverse literacy needs of students and clearly illustrates how New Literacy Studies fills such a niche Educational Linguistics in Practice Francis M. Hult, Kendall A. King, 2011 Reflecting and expanding on Nancy Hornberger s ground breaking contributions to the field of educational linguistics this volume presents new research by leading international scholars and cutting edge syntheses of the fields of bilingual education biliteracy and language policy The Multiple Faces of Agency, 2008-01-01 This timely edited volume examines the education of children and youth in urban settings and offers compelling alternatives for successfully engaging them in school learning Urban schools serve a large proportion of students who are poor of color and speakers of languages other than English The multiple faces of agency Innovative strategies for effecting change in urban school contexts is a new and significant addition to the literature in urban education The editor of the book and contributing scholars are to be commended for assembling such an exciting collection of innovative research for publication The volume s central message the power of human agency may help transform teaching and learning in urban schools If this happens urban school children and youth who deserve better than they have received to date stand to benefit the most from this work

Understanding Literacy in Its Historical Contexts Harvey J. Graff, Alison Mackinnon, Bengt Sandin, Ian Winchester, 2009-01-10 In this detailed study of the history of universal literacy in Sweden a group of renowned scholars review and explore the possibilities for the wider circulation and broader application of central dimensions of the early literacy studies expounding upon the work of the Swedish Lutheran pastor and pioneering social historian Egil Johansson Working initially with parish registers especially examination registers from northern Sweden Johansson discovered the extraordinary usefulness of these documents to determine how literacy in Sweden occurred well before any other European nation despite the fact that Sweden was industrialized about 100 years later than the European norm Egil Johansson also developed imaginative data analysis techniques that help historians around the world to better picture the complete human cast of the past With the help of numerous contributors Johansson founded a giant database of church records and other information which now can help the understanding of preindustrial society Johansson s work spans over many aspects of literacy and social history and their respective relation to religion and gender

Literacy and Development Brian V. Street, 2002-11-01 Literacy and Development is a collection of case studies of literacy projects around the world The contributors present their in depth studies of everyday uses and meanings of literacy and of the literacy programmes that have been developed to enhance them Arguing that ethnographic research can and should inform literacy policy in developing countries the book extends current theory and itself contributes to policy making and programme building A large cross section of society is covered with chapters on Women s literacy in Pakistan Ghana and Rural Mali literacy in village Iran and an Older Peoples Literacy Project This international collection includes case studies from Peru Pakistan India South Africa Bangladesh Mali Nepal Iran Eritrea Ghana
