Situating Composition Composition Studies And The Politics Of Location:

Situating Composition Ede, Lisa, 2004 Responding to a growing pedagogical paralysis in debates over the nature and status of composition studies as an academic discipline Lisa Ede offers a provocative inquiry into the politics of composition's place in the academy The result is a timely and engaging reflection on the rhetoric ideology and ethics of scholarship and instruction in composition studies today Bibliographic Research in Composition Studies Vicki Byard, 2009-10-02

Bibliographic Research in Composition Studies is a student friendly guide to how knowledge is constructed and disseminated in composition studies as well as a thorough handbook on how to conduct bibliographic research in the discipline Student readers are taught Stephen North's taxonomy of scholarship empirical research and practice so that they can better contextualize the sources they read and they learn the unique ways that some genres of publication function in composition studies The book also leads students through the entire process of completing a bibliographic assignment Exploring

Composition Studies Kelly Ritter, Paul Kei Matsuda, 2012-04-30 Kelly Ritter and Paul Kei Matsuda have created an essential introduction to the field of composition studies for graduate students and instructors new to the study of writing The book offers a careful exploration of this diverse field focusing specifically on scholarship of writing and composing Within this territory the authors draw the boundaries broadly to include allied sites of research such as professional and technical writing writing across the curriculum programs writing centers and writing program administration Importantly they represent composition as a dynamic eclectic field influenced by factors both within the academy and without The editors and their sixteen seasoned contributors have created a comprehensive and thoughtful exploration of composition studies as it stands in the early twenty first century Given the rapid growth of this field and the evolution of its research and pedagogical agendas over even the last ten years this multi vocal introduction is long overdue The SAGE Handbook of Rhetorical

Studies Andrea A. Lunsford, Kirt H. Wilson, Rosa A. Eberly, 2008-10-29 The SAGE Handbook of Rhetorical Studies surveys the latest advances in rhetorical scholarship synthesizing theories and practices across major areas of study in the field and pointing the way for future studies Edited by Andrea A Lunsford and Associate Editors Kirt H Wilson and Rosa A Eberly the Handbook aims to introduce a new generation of students to rhetorical study and provide a deeply informed and ready resource for scholars currently working in the field Composition Studies in the New Millennium Lynn Z. Bloom, Donald A.

Daiker, Edward Michael White, 2003 First Semester Jessica Restaino, 2012-02 Using a three part theoretical construct labor action and work as defined in Hannah Arendt's work of political and social theory The Human Condition and rich qualitative data gathered from course observations interviews and correspondence Jessica Restaino looks at the experiences of four new graduate students who are first year writing teachers at Public U a large state university The Lure of Literacy Michael Harker, 2014-12-03 readers of LiCS will find a strong argument for how understandings of literacy are fundamental to the work that compositionists do making this book useful not only to those doing similar work but also to be shared with colleagues who have less familiarity with literacy studies The Lure of Literacy presents a model of how theories of literacy can be applied to the debates that beset compositionists again and again offering a way out of their unproductive cycles Literacy in Composition The Lure of Literacy promises to transcend the stale and unproductive debate on freshman composition that has gripped English studies for more than a century It is the first book to chart the origin of the discussion from the early twentieth century to the advent of the New Literacy Studies Michael Harker recontextualizes proposals to abolish compulsory composition and reimagines pedagogical conditions in English studies in order to present a different model for first year writing This new model for compulsory composition programs focuses on students attitudes about composition and interrogates the very idea of literacy itself

Mapping Christian Rhetorics Michael-John DePalma, Jeffrey M. Ringer, 2014-10-10 The continued importance of Christian rhetorics in political social pedagogical and civic affairs suggests that such rhetorics not only belong on the map of rhetorical studies but are indeed essential to the geography of rhetorical studies in the twenty first century This collection argues that concerning ourselves with religious rhetorics in general and Christian rhetorics in particular tells us something about rhetoric itself its boundaries its characteristics its functionings In assembling original research on the intersections of rhetoric and Christianity from prominent and emerging scholars Mapping Christian Rhetorics seeks to locate religion more centrally within the geography of rhetorical studies in the twenty first century It does so by acknowledging work on Christian rhetorics that has been overlooked or ignored connecting domains of knowledge and research areas pertaining to Christian rhetorics that may remain disconnected or under connected and charting new avenues of inquiry about Christian rhetorics that might invigorate theory building teaching research and civic engagement In dividing the terrain of Christian rhetorics into four categories theory education methodology and civic engagement Mapping Christian Rhetorics aims to foster connections among these areas of inquiry and spur future future collaboration between scholars of religious rhetoric in a range of research areas

Microhistories of Composition Bruce McComiskey, 2016-04-01 Writing studies has been dominated throughout its history by grand narratives of the discipline but in this volume Bruce McComiskey begins to explore microhistory as a way to understand enrich and complicate how the field relates to its past Microhistory investigates the dialectical interaction of social history and cultural history enabling historians to examine uncommon sites objects and agents of historical significance overlooked by social history and restricted to local effects by cultural history This approach to historical scholarship is ideally suited for exploring the complexities of a discipline like composition Through an introduction and eleven chapters McComiskey and his contributors including major figures in the historical research of writing studies such as Louise Wetherbee Phelps Kelly Ritter and Neal Lerner develop focused narratives of particular significant moments or themes in disciplinary history They introduce microhistorical methodologies and illustrate their application and value for composition historians contributing to the complexity and adding momentum to the emerging trend within writing studies toward a richer reading of the field's past and future. Scholars and historians of both composition and rhetoric will appreciate the fresh perspectives on institutional and disciplinary histories and larger issues of rhetorical agency and engagement enacted in writing classrooms that are found in Microhistories of Composition. Other contributors include Cheryl E. Ball, Suzanne Bordelon, Jacob Craig, Matt Davis, Douglas Eyman, Brian Gogan, David Gold, Christine Martorana, Bruce McComiskey, Josh Mehler, Annie S. Mendenhall, Kendra Mitchell, Antony N. Ricks, David Stock, Kathleen Blake Yancey, Bret Zawilski, and James T. Zebroski.

Resounding the Rhetorical Byron Hawk, 2018-07-31

Resounding the Rhetorical offers an original critical and theoretical examination of composition as a quasi-object. As composition flourishes in multiple media—digital, sonic, visual, etc.—Byron Hawk seeks to connect new materialism with current composition scholarship and critical theory. Using sound and music as his examples, he demonstrates how a quasi-object can and does materialize for communicative and affective expression and becomes a useful mechanism for the study and execution of composition as a discipline. Through careful readings of Serres, Latour, Deleuze, Heidegger, and others, Hawk reconstructs key concepts in the field, including composition, process, research, collaboration, publics, and rhetoric. His work delivers a cutting-edge response to the state of the field where it is headed and the possibilities for postprocess and postwriting composition and rhetoric.
