Transnationalism in Modern China Hale Eroğlu,2025-04-01 In the early twentieth century as the multiethnic Qing empire transformed into the Republican Chinese nation state Chinese Muslims faced new challenges confronting competing visions of nation building religion secularism democracy and modernity In this book Hale Ero lu explores how a group of key figures navigated this complex landscape offering a transnational intellectual history of Chinese Muslim thought Muslim Transnationalism in Modern China provides a portrait of underrecognized reformists who aimed to turn Muslim subjects into active Chinese citizens and revive true Islam in order to aid China s development and promote peace Ero lu examines reformists engagement with local and transnational Muslim currents spanning orthodox heterodox reformist secular and socialist movements from Egypt Britain India Turkey and the Soviet Union She reveals their varied strategies and highlights how they adapted global ideas to address local challenges such as the policies of the Nationalist and Communist parties the antireligion discourse of the New Culture Movement and the anti Islam rhetoric of Christian missionaries Drawing from Republican and early Communist era journals Chinese translations of Islamic sources and memoirs and travelogues this book offers a nuanced understanding of Chinese speaking Muslim intellectuals efforts to balance local and global influences in shaping their community s future Disability in Islamic Law Vardit Rispler-Chaim,2006-10-31 1 When I completed my book Islamic Medical Ethics in the Twentieth Century I was aware that I had omitted certain topics that I would have to return to One of these was the ethical treatment of disabilities and the disabled and of handicaps and the handicapped Since responses to burning medical dilemmas within the wide field of medical ethics was the main focus of that book it addressed ethical aspects of the doct patient relationship and contemporary Islamic debates on issues such as birth control and abortion artificial insemination organ transplants postmortem exa nations and euthanasia The main source material was 20th century fatwas legal responses issued by various Middle Eastern muftis In this book I now wish to survey attitudes to the disabled and their disabilities as evinced by selected Sunni and Shi i legal compilations throughout 1400 years of scholarly Islamic activity but also through contemporary fatwas The sources used for this book are a selection ofmedieval as well as modern legal writings medical books and articles in Arabic books and articles on medicine from an Islamic religious point of view Prophetic medicine and the Qur an and medicine I have scrutinized all these for their consideration of people with disabilities and for the behavioral or social adjustments these people were offered mainly through legal rulings Islamisation A. C. S.

Peacock, 2017-03-08 The spread of Islam and the process of Islamisation meaning both conversion to Islam and the adoption of Muslim culture is explored in the twenty four chapters of this volume Taking a comparative perspective both the historical trajectory of Islamisation and the methodological problems in its study are addressed with coverage moving from Africa to China and from the seventh century to the start of the colonial period in 1800 Key questions are addressed What is meant by Islamisation How far was the spread of Islam as a religion bound up with the spread of Muslim culture To what extent are Islamisation and conversion parallel processes How is Islamisation connected to Arabisation What role do vernacular Muslim languages play in the promotion of Muslim culture The broad comparative perspective allows readers to develop a thorough understanding of the process of Islamisation over eleven centuries of its history Islam, Civil Society and Social Work

Egbert Harmsen, 2025-10-01 The thesis analyses the role of Muslim voluntary welfare associations in Jordan from the perspective of their religious discourse and the related social activities to assess whether they contribute to empowerment or reinforce dependency History and Society During the Mamluk Period (1250-1517) Stephan Conermann, 2014 Once a person starts to study the 250 some years of the Mamluk Era in Egypt and Syria 1250-1517 one characteristic of that period stands out immediately the very unusual polarization of its society A predominantly Arabic population was dominated by a purely Turkish born elite of manumitted military slaves who sought to regenerate themselves continuously through a self imposed fiat The only person who could become a Mamluk was a Turk who had been born free outside the Islamic territories as a non Muslim then enslaved brought to Egypt as a slave converted to Islam freed and finally trained as a warrior Only those who met these prerequisites were members of the ruling stratum with all the concomitant political military and economic advantages On this historically unique model of a society Stephan Conermann has published a series of seminal articles In this edited volume the reader gets an excellent introduction to some of the central issues of the ongoing research on the Mamluk history and society
