THE NEW YORK TIMES has called this book "one of the most readable and revealing of the decade." Confessions of a Spy is the story of the author's life in the espionage world. It is a story of the author's experiences in the United States, Europe, and Asia, and of the author's role in the development of the American intelligence system. The book is a masterpiece of the genre, and is a must-read for anyone interested in the history of espionage.
