Sixty Years in Southern California, 1853-1913 Harris

Newmark,2022-09-04 In Sixty Years in Southern California 1853 1913 Harris Newmark presents a vibrant autobiographical account that meticulously chronicles the transformative years of Southern California through a personal lens. Written in a reflective and narrative style, the text serves not only as a memoir but also as a historical document offering insights into the region's social, economic, and cultural evolution during a pivotal era. Newmark's keen observations and engaging storytelling bring to life the challenges and triumphs faced by early settlers, as well as the dramatic changes brought about by the arrival of railroads, the gold rush, and urbanization. Harris Newmark was a prominent Jewish American businessman and community leader whose experiences as an immigrant shaped his perspective on the American West. Arriving in California during a time of great industrial and demographic shifts, Newmark's engagement with local enterprises and civic initiatives provided him with a unique vantage point from which to document the rich tapestry of life in Los Angeles and beyond. His deep, rooted connections to the city and its inhabitants illuminate the aspirations and struggles of a growing multicultural community. This book is a must-read for historians, students, and anyone interested in understanding the complexities of Southern California's past. Newmark's vivid recollections and historical insights provide an invaluable resource for comprehending the region's identity, making it a significant contribution to the study of American history and culture. The Writing of One Novel Irving Wallace,2021-03-19 In The Writing of One Novel Irving Wallace shows how the basic idea of a novel about the Nobel Prize awards took form over sixteen years, tells of the false starts, the persistent detective work, the many drafts, the elation, the despair, the work inseparable from the writer's craft. His book has been widely hailed as a unique portrait of a writer's work. John Barkham, Saturday review syndicate: How do novelists create works of fiction? The answer better than any critic could hope to give it is provided in this literary autopsy by Irving Wallace, one of the most widely read novelists of the day. I cannot recall ever having read a laboratory report of this type before. No one interested in writing, editing, or just reading fiction should miss this professional postmortem. It ought to be made a standard text in writing schools. NATIONAL OBSERVER: Mr. Wallace, who kept journals and diaries at every stage of progress in writing
