Small Change Harriet Guest,2000-12 During the second half of the eighteenth century the social role of educated women and the nature of domesticity were the focus of widespread debate in Britain The emergence of an identifiably feminist voice in that debate is the subject of Harriet Guest's new study which explores how small changes in the meaning of patriotism and the relations between public and private categories permitted educated British women to imagine themselves as political subjects Small Change considers the celebration of learned women as tokens of national progress in the context of a commercial culture that complicates notions of gender difference Guest offers a fascinating account of the women of the bluestocking circle focusing in particular on Elizabeth Carter hailed as the paradigmatic learned and domestic woman She discusses the importance of the American war to the changing relation between patriotism and gender in the 1770s and 1780s and she casts new light on Mary Wollstonecraft's writing of the 1790s considering it in relation to the anti feminine discourse of Hannah More and the utopian feminism of Mary Hays

The Just and Loving Gaze of God with Us, Second Edition Henry Walter Spaulding III, 2024-08-01 In recent years Paul has become the subject of renewed interest among political philosophers These philosophers deploy Paul as a means to deconstruct late modern political issues such as liberalism biopolitics and sovereignty However these philosophers ultimately truncate Paul's message to fit nontheistic materialist ends. Such an approach polarizes interpreters often leading either to a full endorsement or full rejection. In this work Spaulding adds a needed voice in this conversation. By neither fully endorsing or fully rejecting the new approach to Paul, Spaulding argues that Paul's message is both materialist and faithful to the Christian tradition. Spaulding critically utilizes both the new approach and recent studies in apocalyptic interpretations of Paul in order to articulate a Pauline political theology for our time. Pauline apocalyptic emphasizes the already disruptive nature of the incarnation, crucifixion, and resurrection of Jesus of Nazareth that wrests humanity from under the sovereignty of the fallen powers and places them under the Lordship of Christ. Apocalyptic is nourished by the promise of the eschatological hope of the not yet finished work of Christ. The church that follows the Lordship of Christ is called forth into being in the tension of the present Lordship of Christ and the not yet transformation of the cosmos. Such a tension begets practices that form the political commitment of what philosopher Iris Murdoch calls the just and loving gaze, namely the central conviction that in order to live good political lives one must be taught to see.

Common LISP Guy Steele, 1990-06-15. The defacto standard a must have for all LISP programmers. In this greatly expanded edition of the defacto standard you'll learn about the nearly 200 changes already made since original publication and find out about gray areas likely to be revised later. Written by the Vice Chairman of X3J13, the ANSI committee responsible for the standardization of Common Lisp and co-developer of the language itself, the new edition contains the entire text of the first edition plus six completely new chapters. They cover CLOS, the Common Lisp Object System with new features to support function overloading and object oriented programming, plus complete technical specifications. Loops, a powerful control structure for multiple variables. Conditions, a generalization of the error signaling mechanism. Series and generators. Plus other subjects not part of the ANSI standards but of interest to professional programmers. Throughout you'll find fresh examples, additional clarifications, warnings, and tips, all presented with the author's customary vigor and wit.
