Sixth Sense Individualism In French Poetry 1686 176:

The Sixth Sense Robert Finch, 1966-12-15 It has long been the custom to condemn eighteenth century French poetry outright as generally unworthy of attention However in keeping with a recent change of attitude towards this vast and diverse body of literature Professor Finch here undertakes to isolate a certain group of poets belonging to the first half of the century who may appropriately be called individualistes and who are in various ways characteristic of a definite and important trend of their time The authors he has chosen were selected from the larger group of individualists because each provides in addition to his poems a complete statement of his own conception of poetry and of that conception which is common to the group as a whole Since the works treated are comparatively unfamiliar the author has considered them from a historical and an analytical as well as a critical point of view In addition he has devoted three special chapters to a literary historian Evrard Titon du Tillet and to three critical theorists Jean Baptiste Dubos Yves Marie Andr and Charles Batteux whose contemporary writings while they may or may not have influenced the poets here examined support reflect or confirm their ideas and practice Texts of these poets are not easily available and the numerous representative quotations from the poems given in this book will be welcomed by the reader The Literary Doctrines of Jean-François Marmontel Michael Cardy, 1982 The Oxford University Studies in the Enlightenment series previously known as SVEC Studies on Voltaire and the Eighteenth Century has published over 500 peer reviewed scholarly volumes since 1955 as part of the Voltaire Foundation at the University of Oxford International in focus Oxford University Studies in the Enlightenment volumes cover wide ranging aspects of the eighteenth century and the Enlightenment from gender studies to political theory and from economics to visual arts and music and are published in English or French Studies on Voltaire and the Eighteenth Century Theodore Besterman, 1955 Subject Catalog Library of Congress, 1965 Canadian Writers and Their Works Robert Lecker, Jack David, Ellen Quigley, Donald Wilfred McLeod, 1990 Library of Congress Catalog Library of Congress, 1965 A cumulative list of works represented by Library of Congress printed cards Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress, 1970 American Book Publishing Record, 1985 British Books in Print, 1979 Publisher and Bookseller, 1966 Vols for 1871 76 1913 14 include an extra number The Christmas bookseller separately paged and not included in the consecutive numbering of the regular series
