

The Very Memory Of Your Smile
Poem by LLM Mbatha

*The very memory of your smile
The thoughts of seeing you again
Make each day worth while
Even as I feel the falling rain*

*Don't take my dreams away
Tell me, you'll come sometime
My hope lies on what you say
Promise me you'll come sometime*

*Don't make me wait forever baby
Or until my days of prime are done
I only wanna make you happy
In a world that's yours and mine*

*What more can I say or write
Give me a chance to make it show
There's a flame that you ignite
It never dies though winds may blow.*

Soulmates Dr. Bhavan Mahajan, Poonam Sood,2017-10-04 We often say that for the patient the doctor who cares for and cures him is God incarnate Indeed this is true for the doctors who agonize over the agonies of the patients and their relatives spend sleepless tireless days and nights in their service In fact the doctor and the patient become soulmates in this process But very often the doctors feel that they can only treat and the actual healer is the Supreme Power These twenty one real life stories capture the anguish that a caring physician feels over the loss of a patient despite every effort taken Sometimes these tragedies are quite avoidable brought on by ignorance and irrational beliefs There also profiles of brave men and women who face death with equanimity Like the silver ray that lightens up the cloud of despair there is also the ecstasy when a patient is brought back to life from the very jaws of death These moments are the ones that make up for all the heartbreaks that the doctor suffers over the loss of patients
