The Heroic Face Of Innocence:

Heroic Face of Innocence Georges Bernanos, 1999-03-01 Georges Bernanos was the author of the modern literary and religious classic Diary of a Country Priest in which he explored the Christian mystery of redemption through love According to Hans Urs von Balthasar Bernanos is a key figure for our times in the relationship between theology and literature In this selection of Bernanos most significant works Joan Heretic and Saint Sermon of an Agnostic on the Feast of St Theresa and Dialogues of the Carmelites we find theological and psychological insight interwoven with a profound sense of historical drama a masterly exploration of heroic innocence in a group of extraordinary Christian women Unfettered Hope Marva J. Dawn, 2003-01-01 Dawn identifies the social and cultural issues and attitudes that contribute to despair and lack of hope in the world and provides a way for Christians to identify appropriate primary concerns around which they should live their lives Challenging Women's Orthodoxies in the Context of Faith Susan Frank Parsons, 2019-07-31 This title was first published in 2000 Most of the papers in this volume were given at a day conference held at Heythrop College aimed at discussing challenging women's orthodoxies in the context of faith The book acts as an indication that gender matters in the understanding and living of faith The Catholicity of Reason D. C. Schindler, 2013-08-11 The Catholicity of Reason explains the grandeur of reason the recollection of which Benedict XVI has presented as one of the primary tasks in Christian engagement with the contemporary world While postmodern thinkers religious and secular alike have generally sought to respond to the hubris of Western thought by humbling our presumptuous claims to knowledge D C Schindler shows in this book that only a robust confidence in reason can allow us to remain genuinely open both to God and to the deep mystery of things Drawing from both contemporary and classical theologians and philosophers Schindler explores the basic philosophical questions concerning truth knowledge and being and proposes a new model for thinking about the relationship between faith and reason The reflections brought together in this book bring forth a dramatic conception of human knowing that both strengthens our trust in reason and opens our mind in faith The Nuptial Mystery Angelo Scola, 2005-05-12 Translated by Michelle K Borrás The idea of love pervades our society yet it is nearly impossible to answer the question What is love especially as we witness the divorce of love from sexuality and of sexuality from procreation Aware that many people today are skeptical about marriage Angelo Cardinal Scola nevertheless suggests that only in the category of nuptial mystery do we find a way to adequately describe the phenomenon of love A bright new leader in the Catholic Church Cardinal Scola argues that the male female relationship lies near the heart of what it means to bear the image of God Scola's book explores the essential sexual differences that both separate and unite men and women and it shows how men and women can realize their purpose in marriage or celibacy Conversant with papal teaching and Catholic writers from Aquinas to von Balthasar Cardinal Scola writes with a deep regard for marriage and the family His Nuptial Mystery will leave readers with a thoroughly Christian appreciation for incarnate love Joseph Ratzinger in Communio, Volume 2 Pope Benedict

XVI,2013-01-30 Brings together articles by Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger previously published in the North American edition of Communio International Catholic Review An Introduction to Child Theology James M. Houston,2022-02-17 These essays in this book are pastoral and scholarly to encourage parents to nurture and foster Christian family life by learning from scripture and history The Bible in both testaments offers us stories that provide moral and spiritual substance to the nurture of the child and the family Beginning with the mythopoetic story of Adam and Eve and the fratricide of Abel by the envy of Cain the stories of the sacrifices parents made then moving on to the stories of Abraham and Isaac Ruth and her mother in law Hannah and her son Samuel Jeremiah the child prophet these stories form our moral imaginations Further for Christians they all augur the promise of the Incarnation with the birth of Jesus to Mary and Joseph Then through the history of the Church the role of the Child is further unfolded It begins with Jesus teaching that to be as one of his disciples is to be a child This is so radical that the subsequent churches have found it hard to follow Perhaps one symbolic attempt was that of the monks cowl which is a child s garment and still worn in their monasteries The book even explores the way that Christian maturity is one of childlikeness A Theology of Criticism Michael P. Murphy,2008-01-09 A number of critics and scholars argue for the notion of a distinctly Catholic variety of imagination not as a matter of doctrine or even of belief but rather as an artistic sensibility They figure the blend of intellectual emotional spiritual and ethical assumptions that proceed from Catholic belief constitutes a vision of reality that necessarily informs the artist s imaginative expression The notion of a Catholic imagination however has lacked thematic and theological coherence To articulate this intuition is to cross the problematic interdisciplinary borders between theology and literature and although scholars have developed useful methods for undertaking such interdisciplinary border crossings relatively few have been devoted to a serious examination of the theological aesthetic upon which these other aesthetics might hinge In A Theology of Criticism Michael Patrick Murphy proposes a new framework to better define the concept of a Catholic imagination He explores the many ways in which the theological work of Hans Urs von Balthasar 1905 1988 can provide the model content and optic for distinguishing this type of imagination from others Since Balthasar views art and literature precisely as theologies Murphy surveys a broad array of poetry drama fiction and film and sets it against central aspects of Balthasar s theological program In doing so Murphy seeks to develop a theology of criticism This interdisciplinary work recovers the legitimate place of a distinct theological imagination in critical theory showing that Balthasar s voice both challenges and complements contemporary developments Murphy also contends that postmodern interpretive methodology with its careful critique of entrenched philosophical assumptions and reiterated codes of meaning is not the threat to theological meaning that many fear On the contrary by juxtaposing postmodern critical methodologies against Balthasar s visionary theological range a space is made available for literary critics and theologians alike More important the critic is provided with the tools to assess challenge and celebrate the theological imagination as it is depicted today The Carmelite Tradition Steven Payne,2011-06-01 Eight hundred years ago Albert of Jerusalem gave the hermit penitents of Mount Carmel a way of life to follow Since then this rule has inspired and formed mystics and scholars men and women lay and ordained to seek the living God In The Carmelite Tradition Steven Payne OCD brings together representative voices to demonstrate the richness and depth of Carmelite spirituality As he writes Carmelite spirituality seeks nothing more nor less than to stand before the face of the living God and prophesy with Elijah to hear the word of God and keep it with Mary to grow in friendship with God through unceasing prayer with Teresa to become by participation what Christ is by nature as John of the Cross puts it and thereby to be made like Th r se of Lisieux into instruments of God s transforming merciful love in the church and society The lives and writings in The Carmelite Tradition invite readers to stand with these holy men and women and seek God in the hermitage of the heart Steven Payne OCD of the Washington Province of Discalced Carmelite Friars is a member of the Carmelite Friars formation team at the Monastery of St John of the Cross near Nairobi Kenya and director of the Institute of Spirituality and Religious Formation ISRF at Tangaza College a constituent college of the Catholic University of Eastern Africa CUEA in Nairobi He is the past editor of ICS Publications and of Spiritual Life magazine and the author of several works in philosophy of religion theology and Carmelite spirituality He is a member of the Carmelite Forum and of the Carmelite Institute in Washington DC of which he is a past president
