Collecting Ladies Penny Olsen,2013 Around 1870 Ferdinand von Mueller the greatest Australian botanist of the nineteenth century began to advertise in several newspapers across Australia for lady plant collectors This was at a time when women typically had little recourse to science or contact with men outside their circle of friends making Mueller s network of ladies quite extraordinary Collecting Ladies profiles 14 of Mueller s coterie of women collectors Included are Fanny Charsley Louisa Atkinson Annie Walker and Ellis Rowan for whom Mueller made time to assist in pursuit of their own passions He identified the plants they painted and provided letters of introduction to publishers and scientists Together these ladies produced some of the most beautiful books and botanical art to come out of Australia in the nineteenth century covering all the Australian colonies Artists' Portraits Geoffrey Dutton,1992 Kathleen O Connor Thea Proctor Vida Lahey Daphne Mayo Lloyd Rees Treania Smith Constance Stokes Russell Drysdale Clifton Pugh Margo Lewers Feminist Perspectives on Art Jacqueline Millner,Catriona Moore,2018-02-01 When the body is foregrounded in artwork as in much contemporary performance sculptural installation and video work so is gendered and sexualised difference Feminist Perspectives on Art Contemporary Outtakes looks to interactions between art history theory curation and studio based practices to theorise the phenomenological import of this embodied gender difference in contemporary art The essays in this collection are rooted in a wide variety of disciplines including art making curating and art history and criticism with many of the authors combining roles of curator artist and writer This interdisciplinary approach enables the book to bridge the theory practice divide and highlight new perspectives emerging from creative arts research Fresh insights are offered on feminist aesthetics women s embodied experience curatorial and art historical method art world equity and intersectional concerns It engages with epistemological assertions of how the body feels how the land has creative agency in Indigenous art and how the use of emotional or affective registers may form one s curatorial method This anthology represents a significant contribution to a broader resurgence of feminist thought methodology and action in contemporary art particularly in creative practice research It will be of particular value to students and researchers in art history visual culture cultural studies and gender studies in addition to museum and gallery professionals specialising in contemporary art To Try Her Fortune in London Angela Woollacott,2001-08-30 Between 1870 and 1940 tens of thousands of Australian women were drawn to London their imperial metropolis and the center of the publishing art musical theatrical and educational worlds Even more Australian women than men made the pilgrimage home seeking opportunities beyond those available to them in the Australian colonies or dominion In tracing the experiences of these women this volume reveals hitherto unexamined connections between whiteness colonial status gender and modernity The Lost Mother Anne Summers,2010 My mother had just turned ten in mid 1933 when a young woman approached her as they were both leaving Mass at St Joan of Arc s in Brighton The woman was an artist and she would like to paint her portrait After her mother s death in 2005 Anne Summers inherits a portrait of her mother as a child Mesmerised by this image she finds herself drawn into the story of how the portrait was painted and eventually found its way into her family She soon learns the artist painted another portrait of her mother this time as the Madonna In a gripping narrative that is part art history part detective story and part meditation on the relations between mothers and daughters Anne s search for the Madonna painting and the mysterious Russian migr collector who bought both paintings takes her down unexpected paths Her search soon turns into a parallel quest to rescue Constance Stokes the artist from obscurity and to learn why the collector suddenly abandoned the paintings Along the way Anne finds she must face the truth of the relationship she had with her mother In turn hypnotic and moving The Lost Mother is a powerful exploration of art loss and love
