The Last Gentleman A Tribute To David Niven:

The Last Gentleman Peter Haining, 1984 The World and Its Double Chris Fujiwara, 2025-06-25 Otto Preminger was one of Hollywood's first truly independent producer-directors. He sought to address the major social, political, and historical questions of his time in films designed to appeal to a wide public. Blazing a trail in the examination of controversial issues such as drug addiction (The Man with the Golden Arm) and homosexuality (Advise and Consent) and in the frank, sophisticated treatment of adult material (Anatomy of a Murder), Preminger in the process broke the censorship of the Hollywood Production Code and the blacklist. He also made some of Hollywood's most enduring film noir classics including Laura and Fallen Angel. An Austrian migrant, Preminger began his Hollywood career in 1936 as a contract director. When the conditions emerged that led to the fall of the studio system, he had the insight to perceive them clearly and the boldness to take advantage of them, turning himself into one of America's most powerful filmmakers. More than anyone else, Preminger represented the transition from the Hollywood of the studios to the decentralized wheeling and dealing of New Hollywood of today. Chris Fujiwara's critical biography, the first in more than thirty years, follows Preminger throughout his varied career, penetrating his carefully constructed public persona and revealing the many layers of his work. NIV Graham Lord, 2004-12-14 This is the first and only authorized biography of Academy Award-winning actor David Niven. Deborah Kerr Michelangelo Capua, 2014-01-10 Blessed with a natural beauty, Scotland-born actress Deborah Kerr (1921-2007) provided the cinema with memorable studies of English gentility. A star in British pictures before she was 21 and a Hollywood fixture from 1946 on, she projected a cool reserve and stoic nobility, often hinting at passion and insecurity beneath the surface. Frequently portraying selfless, sympathetic women, she was brilliant in such roles as Anna Leonowens in The King and I (1956). And in a fascinating departure from her normal range, her portrayal of the sexually frustrated Army wife in From Here to Eternity (1953) resulted in the screen's most famous clinch: the beach scene with Burt Lancaster. Though she never won an Academy Award despite six nominations, Deborah Kerr received an honorary Oscar in 1994. Carol Reed Peter William Evans, 2019-01-04 Carol Reed is one of the truly outstanding directors of British cinema, and one whose work is long overdue for reconsideration. This major study ranges over Reed's entire career, combining observation of general trends and patterns with detailed analysis of twenty films, both acknowledged masterpieces and lesser-known works. Evans avoids a simplistic auteurist approach, placing the films in their autobiographical, socio-political, and cultural contexts and relating these to the analysis of Reed's art. The critical approach combines psychoanalysis, gender theory, and the analysis of form. Archival research is also relied on to clarify Reed's relations with his creative team, financial backers, and others. Films examined include Bank Holiday, A Girl Must Live, Odd Man Out, The Fallen Idol, The Third Man, Night Train to Munich, The Way Ahead, Outcast of the Islands, Trapeze, and Oliver. Errol Flynn Slept Here Robert Matzen, Michael Mazzone, 2015-05-15 Documenting the most notorious house in Hollywood, this history spans the life and death of Mulholland Farm, the elegant and infamous mountaintop showplace built by film star Errol Flynn at the height of his fame While appearing to be stylish and refined Flynn installed secret passageways two way mirrors and other voyeuristic tools into the house to spy on the famous women he entertained as well as couples making love He lived in Mulholland Farm during Hollywood s Golden Era when he was the most famous playboy movie star alive remaining in the home through the rape trial that almost ruined him and the snatching of John Barrymore s body The intricate story of the farm also spans five continents to include Franklin Delano Roosevelt Ronald Reagan Fidel Castro Humphrey Bogart Shirley Temple Clark Gable Billy Graham Johnny Cash Roy Rogers the Rolling Stones and the other two owners of the property Christian singer songwriter Stuart Hamblen and rock n roll legend Rick Nelson British Stars and Stardom Bruce Babington,2001 British film stars even the most famous ones such as James Mason Sean Connery and Julie Andrews are a neglected subject in film history This interesting collection looks at the whole of British stardom from circa 1910 onwards and the many types of British stars who gained worldwide fame through national and international cinema International Dictionary of Films and Filmmakers: Actors and actresses Tom Pendergast,Sara Pendergast,2000 Contains over two thousand entries arranged alphabetically within four volumes that provide information about significant films actors and actresses directors and writers and production artists in North American British and West European cinematic history Includes photographs and indexes Film Review ,1986 The year s releases in review with necrologies and brief articles Die Kaapse bibliotekaris ,1985 Issues for Nov 1957 include section Accessions Aanwinste Sept 1957 also published separately
