The Gulistan, Or, Rose Garden Sa'dī,1914 The Gulistan Sa'dī,1823 Making of the Artist in Late Timurid Painting

Lamia Balafrej,2019-04-01 In the absence of a tradition of self portraiture how could artists signal their presence within a painting Centred on late Timurid manuscript painting ca 1470 1500 this book reveals that pictures could function as the painter s delegate charged with the task of centring and defining artistic work even as they did not represent the artist s likeness Influenced by the culture of the majlis an institutional gathering devoted to intricate literary performances and debates late Timurid painters used a number of strategies to shift manuscript painting from an illustrative device to a self reflective object designed to highlight the artist's imagination and manual dexterity. These strategies include visual abundance, linear precision, the incorporation of inscriptions addressing aspects of the painting, and the artist's signature. Focusing on one of the most iconic manuscripts of the Persianate tradition, the Cairo Bustan made in late Timurid Herat and bearing the signatures of the painter Bihzad, this book explores Persian manuscript painting as a medium for artistic performance and self-representation, a process by which artistic authority was shaped and discussed.
