Christianity and Islam and its relevance for the present time The idea of freedom in terms of personal freedoms which include freedom of conscience freedom of speech and bodily integrity is a relatively new one and can in some aspects get into conflict with religious convictions At the same time freedom as an emancipatory power from outer oppression as well as from inner dependencies is deeply rooted in Judaism Christianity and Islam It is still a vital concept in religious and non religious communities and movements The volume presents the concept of freedom in its different aspects as anchored in the traditions of Judaism Christianity and Islam It unfolds commonalities and differences between the three monotheistic religions as well as the manifold discourses about freedom within these three traditions The book offers fundamental knowledge about the specific understanding of freedom in each one of these traditions their interdependencies and their relationship to secular interpretations
