The Kirwan Years 1998 2002:

The Kirwan Years, 1998-2002 Christopher L. Perry, 2006 Starting under President Edward Jennings and continuing under Gordon Gee The Ohio State University began a long term drive to match the school's ranking in football with a commensurate reputation for academic excellence Initiatives to admit better prepared students attract and retain world class faculty and build highly rated programs were promising but the university needed a broad strategy to coordinate these and other initiatives into a focused approach Enter President William Brit Kirwan who understood this need perfectly and whose major legacy became widely known as the Academic Plan This document became and remains the centerpiece of Ohio State's agenda with budget and other priorities emanating from its six strategies and 14 initiatives Continuing the Ohio State tradition of chronicling the university's history through the work of its past presidents The Kirwan Years recounts the Academic Plan's creation acceptance and initial implementation along with many major university accomplishments from mid 1998 through mid 2002 It also details the university's ongoing uphill struggle to maximize state financial support and its success in private and other fundraising It provides a compelling look at the complexity permeating today's research universities And yes it describes the firing of football coach John Cooper and the hiring of Jim Tressel

Smart Leadership for Higher Education in Difficult Times David W. Breneman, Paul J. Yakoboski, 2011-01-01 In an era of sound bites Smart Leadership for Higher Education in Difficult Times provides an outstanding analysis of the context in which today's colleges and universities operate The essays are thought provoking insightful and valuable for preparing our institutions for an uncertain future Through case studies and personal experience contributors challenge readers to reflect on our own institutions and re imagine higher education Graham B Spanier The Pennsylvania State University US Smart Leadership for Higher Education in Difficult Times makes the case that bridging the time from recession to recovery with typical belt tightening tactics without a strategy for fundamental change in the higher education business model is a formula for failure Globalization changing demographics evolving technology and jobs of the future are only beginning to impact the business of higher education These trends combined with the lingering effects of constrained revenue are the building blocks of a new business environment Reading this book will jump start your thinking about how innovation reorganization prioritization and strategic investing are necessary for institutional success John Walda National Association of College and University Business Officers US In response to falling state support limited returns from endowments and increasing costs colleges and universities have turned to examinations of the mission of higher education and new ways in which its missions can be achieved Two of the many provocative insights described in this series of papers concern the permanent nature of change in the economic demographic and competitive environment and the need for more creativity and innovation Risa Palm Georgia State University US Smart Leadership for Higher Education in Difficult Times offers positive ideas and encouragement from some of the leading thinkers and doers in higher education about how to lead proactively in response to the sobering challenges now facing colleges and universities economic stagnation the completion imperative rapid demographic changes global competition the stunning pace of technological change and the tensions among affordability and the stubborn growth in college unit costs William Zumeta University of Washington and Association for the Study of Higher Education US As the US economy emerges from the severest recession in a generation large questions regarding its long term ramifications for higher education remain unanswered In fact the harshest effects of the economic downturn are likely ahead as campus leadership focuses on enrollment affordability and fundraising This volume of essays examines the challenges and opportunities for advancing higher education s core missions of education research and service in a resource constrained environment Many parties will wish to return to the old normal but fulfilling the mission of higher education will require implementing change in the face of opposition gaining support from key stakeholders and maintaining morale in the process The new normal entails innovating to meet the needs for higher education among a growing population of potential students from disadvantaged socioeconomic backgrounds many of whom are ill prepared for a college education and unaware of how to access it and a population of mid career students seeking to retool or reinvent themselves for the labor market The economic success of both individuals and the US economy are directly dependent upon increasing the share of the population receiving a higher education Chapter authors include college and university presidents and chancellors and other senior administrators and thought leaders from the higher education community They provide new and actionable information to enhance decision making and inform strategic planning as well as a contemporary examination of the business of higher education and areas of potential new research

Between Two Worlds László Török, 2009 The Egyptological literature usually belittles or ignores the political and intellectual initiative and success of the Nubian Twenty Fifth Dynasty in the reunification of Egypt while students of Nubian history frequently ignore or misunderstand the impact of Egyptian ideas on the cultural developments in pre and post Twenty Fifth Dynasty Nubia This book re assesses the textual and archaeological evidence concerning the interaction between Egypt and the polities emerging in Upper Nubia between the Late Neolithic period and 500 AD The investigation is carried out however from the special viewpoint of the political social economic religious and cultural history of the frontier region between Egypt and Nubia and not from the traditional viewpoint of the direct interaction between Egypt and the successive Nubian kingdoms of Kerma Napata and Meroe The result is a new picture of the bipolar acculturation processes occurring in the frontier region of Lower Nubia in particular and in the Upper Nubian centres in general The much debated issue of social and cultural Egyptianization is also re assessed

Simulator-based Human Factors Studies Across 25 Years Ann Britt Skjerve, Andreas Bye, 2010-12-07 The Halden Man Machine Laboratory HAMMLAB has been at the heart of human factors research at the OECD Halden Reactor Project HRP The HRP is sponsored by a group of national organizations representing nuclear power plant regulators utilities and research institutions The HRP is hosted by the Institute for Energy Technology IFE in Halden Norway HAMMLAB comprises three full scale nuclear power plant control room research simulators The simulator studies performed in HAMMLAB have traditionally been experimental in nature In a simulator it is possible to study events as they unfold in real time in a highly realistic operational environment under partially controlled conditions This means that a wide range of human factors issues which would be impossible or highly impracticable to study in real life settings can thus be addressed in HAMMLAB Simulator based Human Factors Studies Across 25 Years celebrates the twenty fifth anniversary of HAMMLAB by reviewing the human factors studies performed in HAMMLAB across this time span A range of human factors issues have been addressed including human system interfaces alarm systems computerized procedures human automation interaction staffing teamwork and human reliability The aim of HAMMLAB studies has always been the same to generate knowledge for solving current and future challenges in nuclear power plant operation to contribute to safety The outcomes of HAMMLAB studies have been used to support design and assessment of nuclear power plant control rooms

The Top Books of the Year The Kirwan Years 1998 2002 The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the captivating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Kirwan Years 1998 2002 : Colleen Hoover "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. The Kirwan Years 1998 2002 : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. The Kirwan Years 1998 2002 : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
