The Belief of an Unwilling to believe Michael Murauer, 2025-07-10 Against all dogmatic ideologies What can a philosophical life orientation look like in our time Why should we favour it over a religious life orientation The future belongs to philosophy not to religions or secular ideologies With this fundamental statement Michael Murauer places himself in the tradition of Enlightenment thinking The philosopher and physician who sees no acceptable alternative to a rational debate on philosophical and especially moral issues is aware that at the end of such a debate there are no absolute truths but well founded value judgements as presented here in a wide range of topics The Belief of an Unwilling to believe constantly balances on the edge between systematic philosophical treatise and personal confession measuring itself against the current state of thought This book attempts to summarise the philosophical criticism of ideologies taking into account the world view developed by modern science while at the same time offering orientation and help for life on the basis of philosophical thought adequate to modernity

RePresenting Magic, UnDoing Evil: Of Human Inner Light and Darkness Alexandra Cheira, 2020-04-14 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2012 The chapters assembled in this e Book are a taste of an ongoing discussion on evil and magic which promises to last as long as the only thing necessary for the triumph of evil is for good men to do nothing and while the realisation that magic is believing in yourself if you can do that you can make anything happen does not become a global motto The first group of chapters collected in Part I addresses the ethics and effects of translating magic into literary representations as well as real life current practices of creativity and personal change on the one hand and of the harmful malevolent infliction of pain on a third party on another thus challenging the boundaries of the cultural binary constructions of magic as either good or evil In Part II the second group of chapters examines several philosophical theological historical literary political and pop culture attempts towards understanding different meanings and kinds of evil thus broadening our perception of what evil is and how it has been theorized from Plato to contemporary international politics This is our time our call our responsibility to undo evil by carrying the magical torch of good to the next station so that good as if by magic can also become contagious among the human kind

Teaching Virtue Marius Felderhof, Penny Thompson, 2014-11-20 In much of the world religious traditions are seriously valued but in the context of religious plurality this sets educationalists an enormous challenge This book provides a way forward in exploring religious life whilst showing how bridges might be built between diverse religious traditions Teaching Virtue puts engagement with religious life and virtue ethics at the heart of religious education encouraging learning from religion rather than learning about religion The authors focus on eight key virtues examining these for what they can offer of religious value to pupils and teachers Individual chapters put the discussion into context by offering a vision of what religious education in the future could look like the need for responsible religious education a historical review of moral education and an introduction to virtue ethics Lesson plans and examples demonstrate how the virtues may be approached in the classroom making it an invaluable guide for all involved in teaching religious education

The Shadow of Dante in French Renaissance Lyric Alison Baird Lovell, 2020-11-09 This book presents an interpretation of Maurice Scève's lyric sequence Dieu objet de plus haulte vertu Lyon 1544 in literary relation to the Vita nuova Commedia and other works of Dante Alighieri

Dante's subtle influence on Scève is elucidated in depth for the first time augmenting the allusions in Dolce to the Canzoniere of Petrarch. Francesco Petrarca Scève's sequence of dense epigrammatic dizains is considered to be an early example prior to the Pléiade poets of French Renaissance imitation of Petrarch's vernacular poetry in a time when imitation was an established literary practice signifying the poet's participation in a tradition. While the Canzoniere is an important source for Scève's Dolce, both works are part of a poetic lineage that includes Occitan troubadours Guinizzelli, Cavalcanti, and Dante. The book situates Dante as a relevant predecessor and source for Scève and examines anew the Petrarchan label for Dolce. Compelling poetic affinities emerge between Dante and Scève that do not correlate with Petrarch. Barefoot Disciple Stephen Cherry, 2010-12-02. The rediscovery of genuine passionate humility as a healthy life-giving and community-building virtue capable of transforming our BSE (Blame Someone Else) society.
