series advertisements and comic books of recent decades In Tough Girls Sherrie A Inness explores the changing representations of women in all forms of popular media and what those representations suggest about shifting social mores She begins her examination of tough women in American popular culture with three popular television shows of the 1960s and 70s The Avengers Charlie's Angels and The Bionic Woman and continues through such contemporary pieces as a recent ad for Calvin Klein jeans and current television series such as The X files and Xena Warrior Princess Although all these portrayals show women who can take care of themselves in ways that have historically been seen as uniquely male they also variously undercut women's toughness She argues that even some of the strongest depictions of women have perpetuated women's subordinate status using toughness in complicated ways to break or bend gender stereotypes while simultaneously affirming them Also of interest Madcaps Screwballs and Con Women The Female Trickster in American Culture Lori Landay
