Turning the Tables on Apologetics Jeffrey L. Hamm, 2018-05-22 Does apologetic method matter Helmut Thielicke argues that the method should conform to its own message He thus rejects traditional apologetic methodologies beholden to supposedly neutral scientific and philosophical paradigms Seeking to reform Christian conversation Thielicke discovers a lost way of persuasion that is the table turning approach found in Christ's conversations Whenever Jesus is questioned he seldom answers directly For he refuses to allow the conversation to be framed by an autonomous mindset and instead responds with a counterquestion Christ's style of persuasion as the controller of the question subverts his hearers presuppositions and challenges their unbelief This approach is the reverse of the defensive answer giving mode of traditional apologetics In view of renewing Christ's method Thielicke insists that the task of apologetics is something which is always on the offensive and far from giving ready made answers to the doubtful questions of men turns the tables by putting questions on its own account aggressive violent radical questions and striking straight to the hearts of men Christian conversation must integrate Christ's method with his message in order to
