The Land Within Poetry:

Movements in Chicano Poetry Rafael Pèrez-Torres, 1995-01-27 Studies the central concerns addressed by recent Chicano poetry

New Directions in Contemporary Australian Poetry Dan Disney, Matthew Hall, 2021-10-04 This book sets out to navigate questions of the future of Australian poetry Deliberately designed as a dialogue between poets each of the four clusters presented here Indigeneities Political Landscapes Space Place Materiality Revising an Australian Mythos models how poetic communities in Australia continue to grow in alliance toward certain constellated ideas Exploring the ethics of creative production in a place that continues to position capital over culture property over community each of the twenty essays in this anthology takes the subject of Australian poetry definitively beyond Eurocentrism and white privilege By pushing back against nationalizing mythologies that have over the last 200 years since colonization not only narrativized the logic of instrumentalization but rendered our lands precarious this book asserts new possibilities of creative responsiveness within the Australian sensorium

A New Sound in Hebrew Poetry Miryam Segal, 2010-01-02 With scrupulous attention to landmark poetic texts and to educational and critical discourse in early 20th century Palestine Miryam Segal traces the emergence of a new accent to replace the Ashkenazic or European Hebrew accent in which almost all modern Hebrew poetry had been composed until the 1920s Segal takes into account the broad historical ideological and political context of this shift including the construction of a national language culture and literary canon the crucial role of schools the influence of Zionism and the leading role played by women poets in introducing the new accent This meticulous and sophisticated yet readable study provides surprising new insights into the emergence of modern Hebrew poetry and the revival of the Hebrew language in the Land of Israel

New England Landscape History in American Poetry , The Oxford Handbook of Robert Burns Gerard Carruthers, 2024 Robert Burns 1759-96 was a producer of lyrical verse satirical poetry in English and Scots a song writer and song collector a writer of bawdry journals commonplace books and correspondence Sculpting his own image his untutored rusticity was a sincere persona as much as it was not entirely accurate Burns was an antiquarian national patriot pioneer of what today we would call folk culture and a man of the Enlightenment and Romanticism This handbook considers Burns's reception in his own time and beyond extending to his iconic status as a world writer

The Poet and the World Joachim Yeshaya, Elisabeth Hollender, Naoya Katsumata, 2019-07-08 A collection of seventeen essays on pre-modern Hebrew poetry in honor of Wout van Bekkum The articles in this volume all seek to examine how the religious cultural and social context in which the poet functioned impacted on and is visible either explicitly or more elliptically in their poetical oeuvre For this purpose a broad understanding of world has been accepted including both the natural world and the constructed one society culture language as well as the spiritual and emotional world History a pillar of the man-made constructed world has been used to determine the boundaries from Late Antiquity to the Middle Ages and in instances where the topic connects to older traditions to Early Modern Judaism i.e. pre-modern Hebrew and Aramaic poetry The articles in this volume in the breadth of their temporal and spatial range and their multiplicity of approaches and methodologies highlight the richness of contemporary scholarship on Hebrew poetry The volume invites the reader to engage with this astonishing body of poetry while providing a glimpse into the world of the pay anim and the cultures and societies from which they drew their inspiration and to which they made such important contributions

To Build and Be Built Eric Zakim, 2006-02-09 Eric Zakim follows the literary and intellectual career of the powerful Zionist slogan to build and be built from its conceptual origin in reaction to the Kishinev pogroms of 1903 when it first served as an expression of settlement aspiration until the end of pre state national expansion in Palestine in 1938 Draining the swamps and making the desert bloom the Jewish settlers imagined themselves as performing miracles on the land By these acts they were also meant to reinvent the very notion of what it was to be a Jew in the modern world As Jewish settlers reshaped nature in the Holy Land by turning it from one thing into another they too were newly constructed Zakim argues that in the period leading up to the establishment of the state of Israel the action of working the land and building its cities in order to transform both into something essentially Jewish increasingly came to mark a turn inward toward the reclamation of a Jewish subject tied to the very soil of Palestine To Build and Be Built radically recontextualizes modernist Hebrew literature to demonstrate how literary aesthetics of nature formed the very political discourse they nominally reflected Zakim s work sees no division between politics and representation Instead the depiction of nature in literature art and architecture became constitutive of a political and social understanding of the Jew s place in the Middle East By refusing to acknowledge the disciplinary boundaries of standard works on literature history and political thought To Build and Be Built challenges the methodological certainties that have guided popular and academic understandings of the development of Zionist involvement in the land of Israel For this reason To Build and Be Built will be of interest to people beyond literature in particular those working in history and those outside of Israel studies who have an interest in modernism and the representation of nature in the history of culture

Egyptian Colloquial Poetry in the Modern Arabic Canon N. Radwan, 2012-02-14 Noha Radwan offers the first book length study of the emergence context and development of modern Egyptian colloquial poetry recently used as a vehicle for communications in the revolutionary youth movement in Egypt on January 25th 2011 and situates it among modernist Arab poetry

Justice as an Aspect of the Polis Idea in Solon's Political Poems Joseph A. Almeida, 2017-07-31 This book examines the meaning of justice or dike in the political poems of Solon from a new interpretative perspective The first two chapters argue that neither standard historical nor literary treatments have provided an adequate foundation for understanding Solon s dike The main defect lies in an inability to connect Solon s concrete political work with his poetic perceptions The book s central proposal is that the polis idea from new classical archaeology provides an objective standard for an interpretation of Solon s dike which remedies this defect The third chapter sets forth the polis idea which becomes the measure for an examination in the final two chapters of Solon s view of dike The book thus exhibits an interdisciplinary approach to Archaic poetry
