Home-School Connections in a Multicultural Society Maria Luiza Dantas, Patrick C. Manyak, 2011-02-09 Educators everywhere confront critical issues related to families schooling and teaching in diverse settings Directly addressing this reality Home School Connections in a Multicultural Society shows pre service and practicing teachers how to recognize and build on the rich resources for enhancing school learning that exist within culturally and linguistically diverse families Combining engaging cases and relevant key concepts with thought provoking pedagogical features this valuable resource for educators at all levels Provides detailed portraits of diverse families that highlight their unique cultural practices related to schooling and the challenges that their children face in school settings Introduces key sociocultural and ethnographic concepts in ways that are both accessible and challenging and applies these concepts as lenses through which to examine the portraits Shows how teachers and researchers have worked with diverse families to build positive relationships and develop learning activities that incorporate children's unique experiences and resources Disrupting deficit assumptions about the experiences and knowledge that culturally and linguistically diverse children acquire in their homes and communities this book engages readers in grappling deeply and personally with the chapters meanings and implications and in envisioning their own practical ways to learn from and with families and children

The Home-School Connection Flora V. Rodriguez-Brown, 2009-06-02 The Project FLAME program used as the context for this book is a comprehensive family literacy model supported by a strong sociocultural framework based on current research on cultural ways of learning and theories of multiliteracies and discourse The volume is an essential resource for educators community workers and researchers interested in the relevance of the home school connection in relation to children's school success

Family Involvement in Early Education and Child Care John A. Sutterby, 2016-11-21 This volume encourages reflection on previous volumes Family involvement has been an issue in early education going back to Pestalozzi almost two centuries ago This book looks at what advances in the area of family involvement in early education have been made since the publication of the previous volume

Enjoying the Track of Phrase: An Psychological Symphony within The Language Of Children Development In Home And School
