San Francisco Lithographer Robert J. Chandler, 2014-01-29 Grafton Tyler Brown whose heritage was likely one eighth African American finessed his way through San Francisco society by passing for white Working in an environment hostile to African American achievement Brown became a successful commercial artist and businessman in the rough and tumble gold rush era and the years after the Civil War Best known for his bird's eye cityscapes he also produced and published maps charts and business documents and he illustrated books sheet music advertisements and labels for cans and other packaging This biography by a distinguished California historian gives an underappreciated artist and his work recognition long overdue Focusing on Grafton Tyler Brown's lithography and his life in nineteenth century San Francisco Robert J Chandler offers a study equally fascinating as a business and cultural history and as an introduction to

Brown the artist Chandler's contextualization of Brown's career goes beyond the issue of race Showing how Brown survived and flourished as a businessman Chandler offers unique insight into the growth of printing and publishing in California and the West He examines the rise of lithography its commercial and cultural importance and the competition among lithographic companies He also analyzes Brown's work and style comparing it to the products of rival firms Brown was not respected as a fine artist until after his death Collectors of western art and Americana now recognize the importance of Californiana and of Brown's work some of which depicts Portland and the Pacific Northwest and they will find Chandler's checklist descriptions and reproductions of Brown's ephemera including billheads and maps as uniquely valuable as Chandler's contribution to the cultural and commercial history of California In an afterword historian Shirley Ann Wilson Moore discusses the circumstances and significance of passing in nineteenth century America

Something All Our Own Grant Hill, 2004 Grant Hill and experts celebrate and examine the creative expression of African American art and artists

The Other Side of Color David C. Driskell, 2001 This volume presents selections from the highly respected Cosby collection of African American art Their introductions elaborate on their strong belief that African American families should themselves seek to preserve their cultural history and not rely on the mainstream They also provide interesting background about how they began their collection and what owning the art has meant to them The essay by Driskell curator author and scholar places each artist within the context of his or her era from the late 1700s to the present and explores the historical biographical social and political background of each period Also contains biographies of the artists Beautifully illustrated with 91 color plates and several other illustrations Oversize 10 25x13 25 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

The Art of Ellis Wilson Albert Sperath, Margaret R. Vendryes, Steven H. Jones, Eva King, 2000

The Art of Ellis Wilson Albert Sperath, Margaret R. Vendryes, Steven H. Jones, Eva King, 2014-11-04 From the tobacco fields of western Kentucky to the streets of Harlem from the Gullah Islands off the South Carolina and Georgia coasts to the all black republic of Haiti painter Ellis Wilson 1899 1977 examined the scope and depth of black culture One of Kentucky's most significant African American artists Wilson graduated from the Art Institute of Chicago in 1923 He spent five more years in the city before moving to New York where he lived for the rest of his life Aside from his participation in the WPA's Federal Arts Project and a Guggenheim Fellowship he was never able to support himself fully by painting Yet his work has long been praised for its boldness and individuality Black workers were a favorite subject field hands factory workers loggers fishermen and more Of his 1940s series of black factory employees Wilson stated That was the first time I had ever seen my people working in industry so I painted them Over time his documentary style gave way to one that emphasized shape and color over pure representation Despite exhibitions in New York and elsewhere Wilson considered a small show at the public library in his hometown of Mayfield in 1947 to be one of the high points of his life This catalog accompanies the first major retrospective of Wilson s paintings David C. Driskell Julie L. McGee,2006 In this inquiry into Driskell s life and work art historian McGee analyzes Driskell s philosophical struggles as he sought to both express his feelings about racial strife in America and stay true to his art Rhapsodies in Black Richard J. Powell,David A. Bailey,Hayward Gallery,1997 Rhapsodies in Black takes a fresh look at the Harlem artistic renaissance contesting narrow interpretations of the movement and recognising its global significance

Traveling the Rainbow Derrel B. DePasse,2001 Reveals how the artist recorded his memories of the American railroad and the traveling circus as landscapes Collecting the New Bruce Altshuler,2013-10-24 Collecting the New is the first book on the questions and challenges that museums face in acquiring and preserving contemporary art Because such art has not yet withstood the test of time it defies the traditional understanding of the art museum as an institution that collects and displays works of long established aesthetic and historical value By acquiring such art museums gamble on the future In addition new technologies and alternative conceptions of the artwork have created special problems of conservation while social political and aesthetic changes have generated new categories of works to be collected Following Bruce Altshuler s introduction on the European and American history of museum collecting of art by living artists the book comprises newly commissioned essays by twelve distinguished curators representing a wide range of museums First considered are general issues including the acquisition process and collecting by universal survey museums and museums that focus on modern and contemporary art Following are groups of essays that address collecting in particular media including prints and drawings new digital media and film and video and national and ethnic specific collecting contemporary art from Asia Africa and Latin America and African American art The closing essay examines the conservation problems created by contemporary works for example what is to be done when deterioration is the artist s intent The contributors are Christophe Cherix Vishakha N Desai Steve Dietz Howard N Fox Chrissie Iles and Henriette Huldish Pamela McClusky Gabriel P rez Barreiro Lowery Stokes Sims Robert Storr Jeffrey Weiss and Glenn Wharton Aaron Douglas Aaron Douglas,Renée Ater,2007-01-01 African American Art Smithsonian American Art Museum,Richard J. beautifully illustrated catalogue accompanies the first major museum retrospective of the painter Norman Lewis 1909 1979 Lewis was the sole African American artist of his generation who became committed to issues of abstraction at the start of his career and continued to explore them over its entire trajectory His art derived inspiration from music jazz and classical and nature seasonal change plant forms the sea Also central to his work were the dramatic confrontations of the civil rights movement in which he was an active participant among the New York art scene Bridging the Harlem Renaissance Abstract Expressionism and beyond Lewis is a crucial figure in American abstraction whose reinsertion into the discourse further opens the field for recognition of the contributions of artists of color Bringing much needed attention to Lewis s output and significance in the history of American art Procession is a milestone in Lewis scholarship and a vital resource for future study
