Meyer Schapiro's Critical Debates C. Oliver O'Donnell, 2019-10-14 Described in the New York Times as the greatest art historian America ever produced Meyer Schapiro was both a close friend to many of the famous artists of his generation and a scholar who engaged in public debate with some of the major intellectuals of his time This volume synthesizes his prolific career for the first time demonstrating how Schapiro worked from the nexus of artistic and intellectual practice to confront some of the twentieth century's most abiding questions Schapiro was renowned for pioneering interdisciplinary approaches to interpreting visual art His lengthy formal analyses in the 1920s Marxist interpretations in the 1930s psychoanalytic critiques in the 1950s and 1960s and semiotic explorations in the 1970s all helped open new avenues for inquiry Based on archival research C Oliver O'Donnell's study is structured chronologically around eight defining debates in which Schapiro participated including his dispute with Isaiah Berlin over the life and writing of Bernard Berenson Schapiro's critique of Martin Heidegger's ekphrastic commentary on Van Gogh and his confrontation with Claude Lévi-Strauss over the applicability of mathematics to the interpretation of visual art O'Donnell's thoughtful analysis of these intellectual exchanges not only traces Schapiro's philosophical evolution but also relates them to the development of art history as a discipline to central tensions of artistic modernism and to modern intellectual history as a whole Comprehensive and thought provoking this study of Schapiro's career pieces together the separate strands of his work into one cohesive picture In doing so it reveals Schapiro's substantial impact on the field of art history and on twentieth century modernism      Abstraction in Medieval Art Elina

Gertsman, 2025-10-01 Abstraction haunts medieval art both withdrawing figuration and suggesting elusive presence How does it make or destroy meaning in the process Does it suggest the failure of figuration the faltering of iconography Does medieval abstraction function because it is imperfect incomplete and uncorrected and therefore cognitively visually demanding Is it conversely precisely about perfection To what extent is the abstract predicated on theorization of the unrepresentable and imperceptible Does medieval abstraction pit aesthetics against metaphysics or does it enrich it or frame it or both Essays in this collection explore these and other questions that coalesce around three broad themes medieval abstraction as the untethering of the image from what it purports to represent abstraction as a vehicle for signification and abstraction as a form of figuration Contributors approach the concept of medieval abstraction from a multitude of perspectives formal semiotic iconographic material phenomenological epistemological      Edinburgh Critical History of Middle Ages and Renaissance Philosophy Andrew LaZella, 2020-05-01 A team of leading international scholars examine Middle Ages and Renaissance philosophy from the perspective of themes and lines of thought that cut across authors disciplines and national boundaries opening up new ways to conceptualise the history of this period within philosophy politics religious studies and literature
