Vandiver Volume 7 of The Papers of Jefferson Davis offers a unique view of 1861 the first year of the Confederacy Davis presidency and the Civil War On January 21 Davis made his affecting farewell speech before a hushed Senate then left for Mississippi His uncertainty over a military or political course vanished when he received news of his unanimous election as president of the Confederate States of America Inaugurated at Montgomery Alabama on February 18 Davis quickly set to work to forge a government in a race with events to select a cabinet establish departments and plan for the common defense Hopes for a peaceful separation from the North ended with the firing on Fort Sumter subsequent documents reveal a president absorbed by the problems of waging a war that soon stretched from the Atlantic Coast to the Gulf of Mexico Victory at Manassas produced euphoria among southerners but plunged the president into the first of several unfortunate controversies with his generals this one over the failure to pursue the enemy and capitalize on success Throughout 1861 the Confederate commissioners in Europe reported to Davis on their expectations of recognition convinced that the demand for cotton would induce Great Britain and France to break the North's blockade of southern ports and help supply arms for the defense of the fledgling nation Volume 7 provides a rare opportunity to assess anew Davis strengths and weaknesses as executive to reexamine his relationship with generals governors congressmen cabinet officers the press and the public Davis ended the year as he begun aware of the difficulties of the course the South had adopted and confident that its cause would ultimately triumph Containing illustrations maps and more than 2 500 documents drawn from numerous printed sources and more than seventy repositories and private collections Volume 7 covers a year of paramount importance in our country's history

The House of Shattered Wings Aliette de Bodard, 2015-08-18 Multi award winning author Aliette de Bodard brings her story of the War in Heaven to Paris igniting the City of Light in a fantasy of divine power and deep conspiracy In the late twentieth century the streets of Paris are lined with haunted ruins the aftermath of a Great War between arcane powers The Grand Magasins have been reduced to piles of debris Notre Dame is a burnt out shell and the Seine has turned black with ashes and rubble and the remnants of the spells that tore the city apart But those that survived still retain their irrepressible appetite for novelty and distraction and The Great Houses still vie for dominion over France's once grand capital Once the most powerful and formidable House Silverspires now lies in disarray Its magic is ailing its founder Morningstar has been missing for decades and now something from the shadows stalks its people inside their very own walls Within the House three very different people must come together a naive but powerful Fallen angel an alchemist with a self destructive addiction and a resentful young man wielding spells of unknown origin They may be Silverspires salvation or the architects of its last irreversible fall And if Silverspires falls so may the city itself
