Spiderwomans Dream:

A Dream Come True -- Billi Bear, Medicine Woman, and Spider Barbara Kennedy MPH MSW, 2017-04-27 A brilliant portrayal of Cultural Diversity by behaviorist Barbara Kennedy who is also the author and narrator of The Fox and the Hawk. This gentle illustrated story will make you laugh and cry. The simplicity and clever repartee show the reader what love looks like pure and simple. The story takes place in a small fishing town Pink Salmon Bay Alaska. The reader will understand some of the challenges in a community what fear looks like and mob mentality in the village. Annika Spider Woman says Fear and envy made them mean and stupid. That was pretty direct and refreshing. This new wave of educating a very broad demographic with no political agenda and no personal voices is welcomed in the young reader section. The soft message is tucked inside the legends of the Indigenous Peoples Dream Catchers the Mandalas how they are made what they mean and how they are meant to be utilized. The Spider weaves the webs that will catch the best dreams for the children that Annika puts to bed each evening. The villagers teach Billi Bear to play ice hockey and he shows them how to catch fish with their hands. Annika a widow is lonely and wishes for a family of her own. Spider tells her If there is a dream out there we ll catch it. And she sets out to weave and tat an installation that will attract the most extraordinary dream come true. It does not disappoint Annika or the reader. For all ages Chocolate Woman Dreams the Milky Way Monique Mojica, Brenda Farnell, 2023-07-24 This volume documents the creation of Chocolate Woman Dreams the Milky Way a play written and performed by Monique Mojica with collaborators from diverse disciplines. Inspired by the pictographic writing and mola textiles of the Guna an indigenous people of Panama and Colombia the book explores Mojica s unique approach to the performance process. Her method activates an Indigenous theatrical process that privileges the body in contrast to Western theater s privileging of the written text and rethinks the role of land body and movement as well as dramatic story structure and performance style. Co authored with anthropologist Brenda Farnell the book challenges the divide between artist and scholar and addresses the many levels of cultural disciplinary and linguistic translations required to achieve this. Placing the complex intellect inherent to Indigenous Knowledges at its center the book engages Indigenous performance theory and concepts that link body land and story such as terra nullius corpus nullius mapping pattern literacy land literacy and movement literacy. Enhanced by contributions from other artists and scholars the book challenges Eurocentric ideologies about what counts as performance and what is required from an audience as well as long standing body mind dualisms.
