German speaking Jewry Michael A Meyer has written a biography that gives equal consideration to Leo Baeck's place as a courageous community leader and as one of the most significant Jewish religious thinkers of the twentieth century comparable to such better known figures as Martin Buber Franz Rosenzweig and Abraham Joshua Heschel According to Meyer to understand Baeck fully one must probe not only his thought and public activity but also his personality Generally described as gentle and kind he could also be combative when necessary and a streak of puritanism and an outsized veneration for martyrdom ran through his psychological makeup Drawing on a broad variety of sources some coming to light only in recent years but especially turning to Baeck's own writings Meyer presents a complex and nuanced image of one of the most noteworthy personalities in the Jewish history of our age
