Yama, 2020-03-26 What are we to make of direct spiritual experience Of accounts of going to heaven or meeting angels Traditional science would call these hallucinations or delusions Clinical psychologist Dr Mark Yama argues the opposite Through interviews with his patients he shows that underneath the visions and experiences there is a unifying spiritual reality apart from the material world One of the stories recounted in this book is the experience of a woman who could see the future In a spiritual transport she was taken to heaven where truths were revealed to her that she later discovered were already written in Gnostic scripture Another woman lived a life marked by a spiritual sensitivity that defied materialist explanation After she passed away of cancer she came to inhabit the consciousness of another of Dr Yama's patients in the form of a benign possession These stories and many others argue for a deeper reality that places spirituality on an equal footing with the material world A Buddhist Deception Ben Blijleven, 2024-07-23 Innumerable human beings have been lulled into and imprisoned by beliefs and dogmas and assumptions of religions sects false philosophies and other world views by which they lose their striving and consequently the seeking the intuiting the investigating and the evolving Without any exception though only human beings who were unstable and are unstable fell for and fall for a belief and dogmas and assumptions of false philosophies religions and sects and world views Nonetheless however the modern times as well bring visible change with regard to the recognition of the truth The truly rational ones and the ones attempting to think logically those who are effectively searching for the truthful truth those who are willing to acknowledge and follow the Creational laws and recommendations they have become stronger and more in number despite of all mendacious and misleading sects religions false philosophies and other irrational world views The number of truthfully truth seekers is growing and growing even though when they are being hounded by misguiding sects of all hues and from other false thinkers
