Marked Absent: Christ and Education in Northern Ireland Nathan F. Conkey, Global Perspectives on Spirituality and Education Jacqueline Watson,Marian de Souza,Ann Trousdale,2013-12-04 In recent decades and around the world much attention has been given to the role of spirituality in the education of children and young people While educationalists share many common goals and values in nurturing the spiritual lives of children and young people national and regional cultures religions and politics have impacted on the approaches scholars and practitioners have adopted in their investigations and practices The different contexts across nations and regions mean that educators face quite distinct conditions in which to frame their approaches to spiritual education and research and the nature and impact of these differences is not yet understood This book brings together thinkers from around the globe and sets them the task of explaining how their research on children s spirituality and education has been shaped by the historical cultural religious and political contexts of the geographic region in which they work The book presents contributions in three sections Europe and Israel Australasia and The Americas and concludes with a chapter highlighting what is common and what is contextually unique about global approaches to spirituality and education

Spirituality and Education Andrew Wright,2003-09-02 Spirituality and Education introduces the basic contours of current debate in a form accessible to both classroom teachers across the curriculum range and to school managers. It covers all key areas including problems of defining spirituality, government legislation and supporting documentation, relevant empirical research, the social dimension of spirituality, secular and religious manifestations of spirituality in contemporary society, theories of childhood spiritual development, contemporary approaches to spiritual education including collective worship and cross-curricular teaching. A variety of different perspectives and approaches will be offered and readers are encouraged to be reflective through a number of tasks which relate all issues raised directly back to their own specific circumstances. The author includes questions, quotes and lists of further reading.

Spiritual, Life and Values Education for Children John Chi-Kin Lee, 2024-07-19. This book offers various perspectives on children's spirituality and its relation to life and values education from diverse socio-cultural and educational contexts. It brings together a collection of select research articles that were published over a period of two decades (1999-2020) in the International Journal of Children's Spirituality (IJCS) to celebrate the journal's 25th anniversary. Featuring contributions by leading international scholars from U.K., U.S.A., Canada, Hong Kong, China, and Australia, this volume offers a multidisciplinary snapshot of children's spirituality and its relation to life and values education. It highlights the importance of socio-cultural and religious traditions as well as perspectives on religious education and the spirituality of children shaped by religious, cultural, and educational systems in specific societies and contexts. Chapters cover topics including the links between mirror neurons and human empathy and education, the relationship between spirituality and citizenship, the notion of inclusive spiritual education, and the perspectives of spiritual education through the conceptual lens of transcendence, raised awareness, and spiritualism, how outdoor play spaces can contribute to a child's spiritual development through enriching activities, and approaches to help nurture students' spiritual growth in their aspects of themselves, self/others, the environment, and with a Transcendent Other/transcendence. This volume will be a key resource for researchers and postgraduate students interested in understanding children's spirituality and its implications for spiritual, life, and values education.
