Oxford ... 1922 Rudolf Steiner (Philosophical Writer.), 1947 Holistic Learning and Spirituality in Education John P. Miller, Selia Karsten, Diana Denton, Deborah Orr, Isabella Colalillo Kates, 2005-02-10 Explores the theory practice and poetics of spiritual and holistic education Teaching as a Lively Art Marjorie Spock, 1986-03 The author an experienced Waldorf teacher and eurythmist radiates her enthusiasm and sense for beauty as she takes us through the various stages of development of the child She shows us that ripeness is all that nothing can be taught to the child until it is ready to receive it or knowledge will sprout prematurely and wither early This book will help us approach the child with sensitivity and insight Rudolf Steiner Speaks to the British Rudolf Steiner, 2013-11-06 As demonstrated by the contents of this book Rudolf Steiner was able to speak to the British in a very direct and lively way He did not need to give a long introductory build up to his main theme as was expected of him in Germany for instance but could refer immediately to esoteric ideas The intention of this volume is to give a fuller picture of Rudolf Steiner's work in Britain and his approach to esoteric ideas while on British soil Although the major lecture series he gave in Britain have been previously published this book gathers together various lectures addresses question and answer sessions minutes of important meetings and articles a good deal of which has been unavailable in English until now It also features a complete list of all the lectures and addresses Steiner gave in Britain making it a valuable reference book for students of Rudolf Steiner's work A Modern Art of Education Rudolf Steiner, 2001-03-15 In this fine introduction to Waldorf education written out of a series of lectures given in 1924 Steiner provides one of the most comprehensive introductions to his pedagogical philosophy psychology and practice Steiner begins by describing the union of science art religion and morality which was the aim of all his work and underlies his concept of education Against this background many of the lectures describe a new developmental psychology On this basis having established how children's consciousness develops Steiner discusses how different subjects should be presented so that individuals can grow and flourish inwardly Only if the child absorbs the right subject in the right way at the right time can the inner freedom so necessary for life in the modern world become second nature
