SANCTITY THE SPIRITUAL CONFERENCES TREATISE ON THE LOVE OF GOD PUBLISHER AETERNA PRESS The Sermons of St. Francis De Sales: For Lent St. Francis de Sales,1987 The Family As Basic Social Unit Kevin Schemenauer,2024-06 The Family as Basic Social Unit provides a theologically rooted account of the family s social roles and responsibilities As a basic social unit the family is both internally social and socially interdependent with other social communities Reflecting on the family s internally social character Schemenauer proposes that Catholic social teaching applies to family interactions He analyzes household labor using papal teaching on work and sibling violence with more recent theological analysis of peacemaking and he argues that families can complete works of mercy when they feed hungry and care for sick family members In the second part of the volume Schemenauer describes the social interdependence of families He analyzes the relationship between families and the Church civil society the economy and the state Schemenauer proposes that the question for families is not whether to engage with other social communities but how to do so well He explicitly highlights how consumer capitalism creates obstacles for families attempting to live as a basic social unit Then employing the categories of infused simplicity and moral cooperation he provides a framework for discerning family engagement with broader society Finally Schemenauer analyzes the relationship between family commitments and social ministry Working from the family outward Schemenauer describes how family commitments can motivate broader social service but then employs the example of families involved in the Catholic Worker Movement to reflect on the joys and dangers of balancing commitment to one s family with social ministry focused on the urgent needs of those outside of one s household Books and Religious Devotion Allan F. Westphall,2015-02-05 In Books and Religious Devotion Allan Westphall presents a study of the book collecting habits and annotation practices of Thomas Connary an Irish immigrant farmer who lived in New Hampshire in the latter half of the nineteenth century Connary led a pious life that revolved around the use annotation and sharing of religious books His surviving annotated volumes provide a revealing glimpse into the utility of books for a common reader and they show how one remarkable eccentric reader turned religious books into near icons Through a careful excavation of book adaptations and enhancements Westphall gives us insight into the range of opportunities provided by the material book for recording and communicating Connary s religious fervor The study also investigates the broader nineteenth century cultural setting in which books are seen as testimonies of personal faith and come to function as instruments of social interaction in both domestic and public spheres Underlying Connary s many and varied interactions with books is his belief that working in books as physical objects can be a devout exercise instrumental in human salvation The Concept of Freedom in the Writings of St. Francis de Sales Eunan McDonnell,2009 Through the examination of the concept of freedom in the writings of St Francis de Sales the author concludes that in contradistinction to a contemporary understanding of freedom perceived as self determination a Salesian understanding privileges freedom s relationship to the good This situates St Francis de Sales in the classical Thomistic tradition of freedom s necessary

relationship to the good but involves a methodological shift as he employs the Renaissance starting point of the turn to the subject This study demonstrates how St Francis arrives inductively at what St Thomas demonstrated deductively namely the essential relationship of freedom to the good Along with this Thomistic influence the author analyses the Salesian indebtedness to Augustinian anthropology which explains the primacy St Francis gives to the will and consequently to love Love understood as the heart's movement towards the good allows the Salesian approach to move beyond the confines of a traditional faculty psychology to embrace a more biblical understanding of the human person This examination of love's relationship to freedom reveals their teleological and archaeological natures coming back to our origins wherein we discover the source of our freedom bestowed on us as a gift from God English Convents in Exile, 1600-1800, Part I, vol 2 Caroline Bowden, Laurence Lux-Sterritt, Nicky Hallett, Elizabeth Perry, Victoria Van Hyning, 2024-08-01 Between 1600 and 1800 around 4 000 Catholic women left England for a life of exile in the convents of France Flanders Portugal and America These closed communities offered religious contemplation and safety but also provided an environment of concentrated female intellectualism The nuns' writings from this time form a unique resource

The Reading and Preaching of the Scriptures in the Worship of the Christian Church, Volume 4 Hughes Oliphant Old, 2002-05-02 The Reading and Preaching of the Scriptures in the Worship of the Christian Church is a multivolume study by Hughes Oliphant Old that explores the history of preaching from the words of Moses at Mount Sinai through modern times In Volume 4 The Age of the Reformation Old focuses on changes in preaching due to the Protestant Reformation and the Catholic Counter Reformation This is the pivotal volume in Old's project covering as it does not only what the Reformers and Counter Reformers preached but also their reform of preaching itself Old traces the main events and people involved in the development of preaching at this time Luther Calvin Thomas of Villanova Francis Xavier William Perkins John Donne Johann Gerhard Jacques Bossuet and many more while also giving due attention to how preaching was itself an act of worship
