

A person with a backpack is walking away from the camera on a long, narrow wooden bridge that stretches into the distance. The bridge is flanked by dark, dense foliage and trees. In the background, a small town or village is visible under a warm, golden sunset sky. The overall mood is contemplative and serene.

Spiritual Maturity In The Later Years:

Spiritual Maturity in the Later Years James J. Seeber, 1990 This in depth book addresses the intertwined relationships between aging spirituality and physical well being As the number of Americans in the 75 to 84 age bracket is projected to reach 12 million by 2000 and the 85 plus population is expected to increase seven times by 2050 it is vital that the interconnected needs of spiritual and physical well being of the aging are being met As outlined in this book blending concepts from theology behavioral science and medicine is the framework needed to develop a future in the human services field capable of responding to the whole person Spiritual Maturity in the Later Years takes a comprehensive look at what spiritual maturity is and how it relates to current thinking in theology medicine and psychotherapy The editor highlights the fully ecumenical and interfaith nature of the search for understanding and the interdisciplinary nature of the religion and aging movement Many helping professionals as well as formally trained theologians utilize religious resources in their lives and work The editor also addresses the desperately growing need for research at both conceptual and empirical levels helping ease complicated research due to the multidimensional character of psychology and sociology in religion Conceptual chapters represent such diverse topics as humor as a psychological sign of spiritual maturity the search for meaning and a theology for serving the oldest old Research chapters range from liturgical celebrations for the later years and reports on faith developments to ministry with Alzheimer s patients Both academicians and practitioners will gain greater understanding from Spiritual Maturity in the Later Years of the need for a combined care approach to provide the best physical and spiritual care of the elderly Spiritual Growth and Care in the Fourth Age of Life Elizabeth

MacKinlay, 2006-02-08 This book explores the spiritual dimension of ageing and investigates the role of pastoral and spiritual care in helping the frail elderly cope with end of life issues Focusing on the experience of nursing home residents and anecdotes gathered in interviews MacKinlay sensitively presents the struggles facing older people in need of care

Spirituality of Later Life Elizabeth Mackinlay, 2014-06-11 Humor expresses a certain heroic defiance in the face of life s most challenging experience and provides a valuable resource for the celebration of life and the divine comedy of faith hope and love From the book chapter by Melvin A Kimble PhD Studies have shown that as many people age their spirituality deepens Spirituality of Later Life On Humor and Despair explores the challenges faced by those in later life and the use of humor for self transcendence to achieve greater strength and deeper spirituality Respected authorities share their insights on humor and despair in the process of spiritual development in later life with discussions on how to provide effective pastoral practice in aged care Spirituality of Later Life On Humor and Despair presents the major issues that challenge people in later life that could lead them to either spiritual integrity or despair Beyond the physical and psychosocial this book shows how the journey into aging can through humor become self transcendent and deeply spiritual in the face of physical decline This theological perspective illustrates the full breadth of issues facing those in later life It presents effective pastoral frameworks of care for those who struggle with the depression dementia disabilities losses and terminal illness that may accompany aging Spirituality of Later Life On Humor and Despair explores humor as a path to self transcendence in later life later life s paradox of well being and defiant power of the human spirit dementia and its effect on spirituality spiritual and pastoral care approaches for those with depression religiousness in older people with dementia the spiritual journey of hospice patients non speech based pastoral care Spirituality of Later Life On Humor and Despair provides valuable insights for aged care chaplains parish clergy pastoral and aged care workers social workers activity officers health professionals and anyone whose life includes an elderly person The Spiritual Dimension of Ageing, Second Edition Elizabeth

MacKinlay,2017-02-21 People are asking more and more questions about life and meaning as they are growing older and living for longer There are increasing opportunities to engage with spiritual well being later in life This book provides a comprehensive study of spirituality and ageing with newly updated material on recent developments in this field The Spiritual Dimension of Ageing Elizabeth MacKinlay,2001 Drawing on in depth interviews with older people Elizabeth MacKinlay develops an understanding of spirituality that enables the reader to explore the spiritual dimension of ageing and to learn how it contributes to well being and health in later life This book will be a useful text for students trainers and academics policy makers and practitioners in health and social care as well as religious professionals in hospital residential and other caring settings BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

Mental Health and Spirituality in Later Life Elizabeth MacKinlay,2014-01-02 Explore pastoral strategies for dealing with mental health problems Mental health is increasingly being recognized as an important issue in later life This valuable book will help you examine this dimension of aging in the context of pastoral spiritual and cultural issues It explores the relationship between mental health spirituality and religion in later life including the search for meaning cultural issues spiritual issues depression dementia and issues of suicide in older people The first part of Mental Health and Spirituality in Later Life focuses on theology ethics and cultural issues in mental health and aging The second part addresses issues of multidisciplinary practice including a challenging chapter written by a woman with early onset dementia Alzheimer s and other chapters that present perspectives on the uses and meanings of ritual and symbolism in mental health and pastoral approaches to care Part one of Mental Health and Spirituality in Later Life deals with issues of theology culture and mental health in later life focusing on the importance of a richly textured understanding of personhood as a prerequisite for constructing a picture of late life mental health in the context of theology the relationship between culture spirituality and meaning for older immigrants and their effects on mental health the adverse effects of a mental health system that reflects only the dominant culture of a society leaving minority cultures vulnerable to misdiagnosis and inappropriate treatments that can do more harm than good a wholistic picture of aging that moves beyond the biomedical paradigm and demonstrates the power and potential of the human spirit in adjusting to and moving beyond suffering Part two of this valuable book addresses issues of concern to practitioners in mental health and spirituality for the aging including disruptive behavior among nursing home residents and common practices that fail to identify its causes or address the problem how some staff resident interactions can produce suffering for all concerned with case study outlines that illustrate the point memory loss and its effect on spirituality self worth and the faith community pastoral care for people suffering with dementia with practical information on helping them to make use of the power of prayer and to deal with loneliness fear and disempowerment an insightful look at a recent major study of residents in aged care facilities in Australia that explores the link between depression and spirituality risk and protective factors associated with suicide in later life and the treatment of depression pastoral interventions for depression and dementia

piritual Maturity The Whole Elephant provides a look at spiritual maturity for both spiritual seekers and the spiritually religiously committed It provides a glimpse of the whole elephant to use a term based on the Hindu metaphor of the blind men and the elephant It contains widely diverse answers to ten defining questions about spiritual maturity These questions include the characteristics of spiritual maturity the relationship to psychological and moral maturity and to social action and the culture stages to and which organizations support attainment alone or in community how to support others on the path and where you are The answers are given by thirty spiritual leaders not leaders of the national or academic variety but leaders of the shoe leather variety clergymen Catholic Protestant Jewish and New Age university professors and a psychotherapist monks and sisters a Native American followers of Islam Hindu and Buddhist practices members of 12 Step programs and a human development trainer an African American Sufi and black Baptist deacon It is spiritual maturity made accessible to everyone It closes with the reflections of a university professor after viewing the Holocaust Museum providing a glimpse of the possible cost of holding on so rigidly to our specific understanding of who God is and his possible plan for us Imagine a dialogue among people who hold very different points of view The group consists of a Bible church pastor a law school professor a member of Alcoholics Anonymous the abbot of a Zen monastery a Roman Catholic sister who is an instructor in Spiritual Direction a Baptist worship leader and a Methodist pastor Imagine two of them as reluctant participants one the member of Alcoholics Anonymous because he is not exactly a fan of organized religion the second is the Bible pastor who appeared suspicious of mingling with other leaders of non Bible based religions The dialogue follows Always the teacher the law professor begins by giving his definition of spiritual maturity Coming of age in the spirit While everyone nods wisely in agreement they then realize that they all have differing definitions of spirit and even of coming of age The Methodist pastor picks up the thread The person would have an awareness of the divine in life They would have a sense in which they would understand that which we call God and feel some connectedness and relatedness to that God Looking around for agreement he continues They would be able to utilize the rites and rituals of their faith in an effective manner with as little sense of magic or mere wish fulfillment as possible They would be able to give witness to that in a variety of ways whatever is appropriate that comes with their setting He points out aware of the diversity of the setting that what he was saying could be taken in the broadest possible sense This application would apply to a Buddhist or a Muslim as well as a Christian Afraid that the conversation might digress the Baptist worship leader enters the conversation to qualify Its not something we can produce Its Christ likeness produced inside us through friendship with the triune God He explains that what spiritual maturity means to the Christian is Holy Spirit maturity He elaborates he means Holy Spirit produced maturity Nodding in agreement the Buddhist abbot says I think there is a certain spiritual maturity that comes with people who are really into any spiritual practice deep into whatever spiritual practice They seem to be open to all others seem to have respect for one another That would be wonderful if we all had that openness to one another's spiritualities I encountered my own prejudice All human beings have particular biases beliefs that we hold to be true whether we are aware of them or not One question I asked rather awkwardly of

Wising Up Kathy Black, Heather Murray Elkins, 2010-04-01 Wising Up provides rituals and guidance for women as they age It helps them make the often difficult life transitions wisely and in the context of their faith communities Instead of focusing exclusively on time worn thresholds such as menopause marriage and divorce and dying the book contains affirming rituals on coming to terms with the changes in one's body learning to live with and depend on an item like a walker or a hearing aid giving up one's driver's license deciding how to give away one's household contents and being orphaned In addition to the rituals and guidelines on how to create one's own rituals the book contains a number of short stories hymns prayers quotations and poems to help ease women through the aging process Contributors Susan Beehler Teresa Berger Kathy Black Ruth Duck Heather Murray Elkins Brigitte Enzner Probst Martha Whitmore Hickman Martha Ann Kirk Mary Elizabeth Mullino Moore Susan Roll Deborah Sokolove Linda J Vogel and Janet Walton

Oxford Textbook of Spirituality in Healthcare Mark Cobb, Christina Puchalski, Bruce Rumbold, 2012-08-09 The relationship between spirituality and healthcare is historical intellectual and practical and it has now emerged as a significant field in health research healthcare policy and clinical practice and training Understanding health and wellbeing requires addressing spiritual and existential issues and healthcare is therefore challenged to respond to the ways spirituality is experienced and expressed in illness suffering healing and loss If healthcare has compassionate regard for the humanity of those it serves it is faced with questions about how it understands and interprets spirituality what resources it should make available and how these are organised and the ways in which spirituality shapes and informs the purpose and practice of healthcare These questions are the basis for this resource which presents a coherent field of enquiry discussion and debate that is interdisciplinary international and vibrant There is a growing corpus of articles in medical and healthcare journals on spirituality in addition to a wide range of literature but there has been no attempt so far to publish a standard text on this subject Spirituality in Healthcare is an authoritative reference on the subject providing unequalled coverage critical depth and an integrated source of key topics

Divided into six sections including practice research policy and training the project brings together international contributions from scholars in the field to provide a unique and stimulating resource
