Spirituality And Stuff The Reflections Of An Addictions Chaplain:

Spirituality and Stuff Gregory P. Gabriel, 2001-11-29 Chutzpah Sauce is as its subtitle indicates a collection of one act plays on Jewish themes intended to be performed in a single evening The plays are all comedies and are set in different periods The Converts is about what could have happened when the Khazars were converted to Judaism about a thousand years ago He ll Be Coming Down The Mountain When He Comes concerns a group of querulous Israelites awaiting the return of Moses from Mount Sinai Ends and Means focuses on the problem kids of a Jewish family in Long Island There are also two interludes in which three middle aged women regale the audience with every Jewish Mother joke known to the author Played before the curtain these interludes enable scene changes for the one act plays to take place unseen by the audience An addendum provides a fourth one act play unconnected with the previous three Early Symptoms is a curtain raiser concerning a Jewish doctor and his disturbed patient For the uninitiated there s a Glossary explaining the Yiddish and Hebrew terms that appear in the plays The illustrations have been provided by the playwright s wife Carolyn Geduld Time for Reflection Steve Younger, 2018-09-30 Time for Reflection is a comprehensive handbook for school chaplains and all with responsibility for ensuring the spiritual development of children and young people It offers clear and essential guidance on a wide variety of topics the role of chaplains in relation to pupils parents staff and the whole school community guidelines on appointing chaplains codes of conduct involving chaplains in the delivery of curriculum content chaplaincy and pastoral care chaplaincy and crisis support a practical theology of chaplaincy In addition busy chaplains will welcome the range of tried and tested ideas for assemblies and other acts of religious observance and the directory of online resources for chaplaincy ministry Framed within Scotland s Curriculum for Excellence and grounded in academic research new and experienced chaplains everywhere will find Time for Reflection an invaluable guide The Chaplain's Presence and Medical Power Richard Coble, 2017-12-20 Why is loss present but rarely spoken of in the hospital system How does such silence carry over to the practices of chaplains who accompany dying patients and grieving families Richard Coble critically examines his experiences as a hospital chaplain to analyze the place of spiritual care in wider trends vexing healthcare today including its persistent disparities and its related inability to reckon with human decline Simultaneously he offers routes for chaplains to be a force of change Spiritual Assessment in Healthcare: A Resource Guide Linda Ross, Wilfred McSherry, 2025-05-23 This new edition led by two prominent Professors of Nursing explores issues of spiritual assessment in healthcare practice while adopting a lifespan approach and also including expertise from nursing midwifery medicine mental health children and adolescents meaningful ageing and intellectual disability The importance of cultural sensitivity and diversity are explored because it is recognised that these are themes that have been neglected in discussions about spiritual assessment It provides nurses and other healthcare professionals with a valuable resource that will assist them with identifying and meeting their patients and clients spiritual needs The book as previously commenced by providing an overview of what is meant by spirituality this operational definition is derived from the authors research and experiences in teaching these subjects to a wide range of healthcare professionals The updated and expanded text will assist readers to engage with the conceptual and theoretical challenges and developments associated with spirituality and spiritual care The book offers very practical insights and steps for introducing and advancing spiritual assessment in a wide range of healthcare settings The adoption of a life span approach means that concepts such as spirituality spiritual care and assessment can be better understood by healthcare professionals working in specialist fields of practice Each chapter will draw upon up to date evidence to demonstrate the development of both the art and science of spiritual assessment The book will continue to challenge contemporary thinking asking for healthcare professionals working within a diverse range of care settings organisations institutions educational contexts to evaluate their practice in relation to spiritual assessment A primary goal of this 2nd Edition is to continue to advance thinking and practice in spiritual assessment by using a lifespan approach that offers insight into the dilemmas obstacles deficits that inhibit or prevent nurses and other allied healthcare providers from supporting clients and patients with their spiritual needs Integrating Religion and Spirituality into Clinical Practice René Hefti, Arndt Büssing, 2018-05-18 This book is a printed edition of the Special Issue Integrating Religion and Spirituality into Clinical Practice that was published in Religions Addiction and Pastoral Care Nicolas Roberts, 2018 Addiction can take many forms and there can hardly be a minister or a prison college or schools chaplain who will not have encountered its damaging effects on individuals their families and local communities In the UK in 2014 there were 3 300 drug related deaths and almost 9 000 alcohol related deaths 70% of offenders admit to a drug problem before prison and drug use is a major problem throughout the prison system Besides these compulsive behaviours of all kinds damage personal and communal wellbeing Clergy and pastoral workers are often in the front line caring for addicts and their families usually without any professional training This handbook from an experienced pastoral practitioner offers An exploration of the psychology of addiction A theological perspective on desire The nature of pastoral care with addicts Practical models of pastoral care Resources for professional care First Things , 2004 Reclaiming Our Souls Julia Corbett-Hemeyer, 2013 Free yourself from the pain of past childhood sexual abuse and reclaim the spiritual and emotional well being you deserve Reclaiming Our Souls is both a memoir and an intelligent self help book The author draws on both her extensive training in world religions her experience as an interfaith minister and a chaplain and her personal experience of healing from childhood sexual abuse She weaves her own story together with helpful healing techniques for all survivors Hospice Rebecca Malcolm Schubert, Jean Bayview, 2023-09-07 This book is a selection of a chaplain s experiences of how hospice can serve the families and patients who enter this special journey It contains patient stories told from the chaplain s view When Chaplain Beck is with patients she often shares one of her stories to help ease their fears It is her hope that sharing these stories in this book will prepare readers and lessen their anxiety when hearing the word hospice in relation to themselves or a loved one Experiencing these holy moments may even help on one's own spiritual journey. Hospice does not mean death is imminent but rather it is a transition of care that focuses on the patient's physical, emotional, and spiritual needs as they approach the end of life, which may be days or months away. From Schubert's first visit made as a chaplain resident to her last day thirty years later as a hospice chaplain, she has been honored to serve the dying and their loved ones. She hopes that readers will hear the love and grace and see that through hospice the end can be as beautiful as the beginning. Into the Depths Rosie Deedes, 2019-08-15. Drawing on her experience of chaplaincy in prison, hospice, and university contexts, Rosie Deedes reflects on the nature of good pastoral care and chaplaincy as a model of ministry for our time.
