perspective illustrates the full breadth of issues facing those in later life It presents effective pastoral frameworks of care for those who struggle with the depression dementia disabilities losses and terminal illness that may accompany aging

Spirituality of Later Life On Humor and Despair explores humor as a path to self transcendence in later life later life s paradox of well being and defiant power of the human spirit dementia and its effect on spirituality spiritual and pastoral care approaches for those with depression religiousness in older people with dementia the spiritual journey of hospice patients non speech based pastoral care Spirituality of Later Life On Humor and Despair provides valuable insights for aged care chaplains parish clergy pastoral and aged care workers social workers activity officers health professionals and anyone whose life includes an elderly person Ageing, Disability and Spirituality Elizabeth MacKinlay,2008-02-15 This collection examines theological and ethical issues of ageing disability and spirituality with an emphasis on how ageing affects people who have mental health and developmental disabilities The book presents ways of moving towards more effective relationships between carers and older people with disabilities Spiritual Growth and Care in the Fourth Age of Life Elizabeth MacKinlay,2006-02-08 This book explores the spiritual dimension of ageing and investigates the role of pastoral and spiritual care in helping the frail elderly cope with end of life issues Focusing on the experience of nursing home residents and anecdotes gathered in interviews MacKinlay sensitively presents the struggles facing older people in need of care Palliative Care, Ageing and Spirituality Elizabeth MacKinlay,2012 With sensitivity and compassion this guide provides comfort and support for older people who are nearing the end of life as well as their families offering practical suggestions in dealing with pain suffering prayer and fear of dying Original Spirituality and Personhood in Dementia Albert Jewell,2011-08-15 Offering an inter disciplinary approach to spirituality and personhood in dementia care the contributors to this book are leading practitioners and researchers in the field They provide both a theoretical structure and a practical understanding of the essential role that spirituality can play in the affirmation of personhood and identity The Storied Self Bruce A. Stevens,2018-10-15 We are multistoried each story contributing to who we are the storied self A number of undeveloped stories are identified in this book This includes the hidden story before language Others include the lazy story the trauma story the messy story the body story the problem story and the dark story The God story brings the spiritual realm into focus The challenge in spiritual care is to help people find an integrative deep story which can be re authored with new and exciting possibilities This book draws on the insights of narrative gerontology for a natural engaging and more comprehensive spiritual care of the aged one that results in psychological and spiritual growth This is a unique idea which will challenge the way we think about pastoral care Ministering to Older Adults Donald Koepke,2013-10-18 Learn how to focus your ministry s programs and services on the elderly By 2030 20% of the people living in the United States will be age 65 or older with unique spiritual needs that can affect their physical and mental well being Ministering to Older Adults answers the critical need for a ministry that doesn t center primarily on youth and families in its outreach instead presenting a step by step guide to developing a ministry for the aged that is focused on the needs and resources of each congregation This program has been used effectively with nearly 50 congregations both large and small to create a focused older adult ministry No two congregations are alike The resources perspectives and skills of each congregation are different as are the needs of its members Ministering to Older Adults provides a framework for use by planning groups within communities of any religious tradition The book presents a process that includes essential questions that allow planning groups to develop answers that fit the needs cultural history and structure of their individual congregations Ministering to Older Adults is divided into three sections The Fundamentalsdefining your audience your mission and the skills and existing programs that can be brought to the planning process Programming Possibilitiesspiritual needs based on the aging process continued learning for older adults opportunities to serve and be served providing quality pastoral care and community building Putting it All Togetherdeciding on a direction using desired outcomes for evaluation establishing target dates and ongoing evaluation Ministering to Older Adults also includes forms and charts to help in the planning process The book is an invaluable resource for clergy ministry committees and planning groups and staff persons responsible for older adult ministries

Methods in Religion, Spirituality & Aging James W. Ellor, 2013-10-18 Since the 1971 White House Conference on Aging in the United States the need to move from religiosity into new areas such as Spiritual Assessment and Spirituality has emerged This movement has picked up momentum among scholars particularly in terms of research in the area of Spirituality While spirituality as a term is employed in many new studies this term continues to defy the quest for a single definition and method This book is divided into three sections In the first the authors reflect on the philosophical and theological issues presented by these terms from a variety of both cognate and practical methodological approaches The second section offers insights from the major professions of sociology psychology public health nursing and social work The final section offers insight and assistance to researchers and authors on specific religious traditions This book will be important for anyone working to develop such practical tools as spiritual assessment forms to those who engage in more formal scholarly investigation
