Bibliographie D'histoire de L'art ,1991 The Mirror Sabine Melchoir-Bonnet,2014-06-03 This engaging and witty cultural history traces the evolution of the mirror from antiquity to the present day illustrating its journey from wondrous object to ordinary trinket With its earliest invention the mirror allowed us to gaze upon ourselves bestowing a power both fascinating and terrifying European Biographical Directory ,1991 Imagining Women's Conventual Spaces in France, 1600-1800 Barbara R. Woshinsky,2016-12-05 Blending history and architecture with literary analysis this ground breaking study explores the convent s place in the early modern imagination The author brackets her account between two pivotal events the Council of Trent imposing strict enclosure on cloistered nuns and the French Revolution expelling them from their cloisters two centuries later In the intervening time women within convent walls were both captives and refugees from an outside world dominated by patriarchal power and discourses Yet despite locks and bars the cloister remained porous to privileged visitors Others could catch a glimpse of veiled nuns through the elaborate grills separating cloistered space from the church provoking imaginative accounts of convent life Not surprisingly the figure of the confined religious woman represents an intensified object of desire in male authored narrative The convent also spurred feminutopian discourses composed by women convents become safe houses for those fleeing bad marriages or trying to construct an ideal pastoral life as a counter model to the male dominated court or household Recent criticism has identified certain privileged spaces that early modern women made their own the ruelle the salon the hearth of fairy tale telling Woshinsky s book definitively adds the convent to this list Mémoires de la Classe des lettres ,1910 Georges Chastellain Gabriel Pérouse,1910 Mémoires Académie royale des sciences, des lettres et des beaux-arts de Belgique.
