Splendid Harvest Germanic Folk Decorat:

A Splendid Harvest Michael S. Bird, Terry Kobayashi, 1981 German Folk Arts of New York State Mary Antoine de Julio, 1985-01-01 The folk industry and beautiful crafts of German settlers in New York State come to light in this richly illustrated volume Following the devastating Thirty Years War waves of Germans migrated to the New York region in the first decade of the seventeenth century The settlers brought with them a rich enduring tradition of painted furniture carved objects and embroidered cloth folk arts that continued for at least five generations well into the late nineteenth century Featured here are some of the most striking and well known of those craft traditions the famous painted wooden chests everyday tools paintings book covers textiles decorated boxes chairs and other distinctively rendered furniture The detailed description and analysis of these craft traditions offer a powerful and unique glimpse of German settlers in New York State and reveal their long standing influence on the history of the region Mary Antoine de Julio is a historian and the author of What a Rich Reward Betsey Reynolds Voorhees and the Collection of Her Handiwork She is co owner of La Maison Ravoux Bread and Breakfast in Prairie du Chien Wisconsin Roderic H Blackburn is an ethnologist and architectural historian who has held positions as Director of Research at Historic Cherry Hill Assistant Director of the Albany Institute of History and Art and Senior Research Fellow at the New York State Museum He is the author of Dutch Colonial Homes in America Great Houses of New England and with Ruth Piwonka Remembrance of Patria Dutch Arts and Culture in Colonial America 1609 1776

Mennonite Life Cornelius Krahn, 1984 Celebrating Canada Peter E. Baker, 2017-06-03 Inspired by the 150th anniversary of Canadian confederation Quebec author and antiques professional Peter E Baker brings life to Canadian history and demonstrates how antiques and folk art can successfully be incorporated into a contemporary lifestyle providing a home with a unique identity Mennonite Arts Clarke Hess, 2002 The rich and diverse arts practiced by the distinctive Mennonite communities in Europe Pennsylvania and Canada over a 300 year period are presented A host of newly recognized Mennonite artisans of traditional quilts furniture wood carvings and fraktur are introduced and many are displayed here in the hundreds of color images Religion in Film John R. May, Michael S. Bird, 1982 This carefully edited collection of essays explores in greater diversity and depth than has been attempted before the relationship between film and religion Combining perspectives from traditional film criticism and from religious studies Religion in Film asserts that it is no longer possible to view films simply in terms of their moral impact nor is it reasonable to limit religious meaning only to those films that make an explicit appeal to religious elements The essays offer a variety of theoretical reflections on the religious interpretation of film explore particular cinematic variations on the archetypal images of savior and demon analyze significant cultural trends of a religious nature related to film and assess thirteen sensibilities Altman Bergman Bunuel Chaplin Coppola Fellini Hitchcock Jutra Kubrick Peckinpah Russell Truffaut and Wertmuller The contributors provide a firm basis for analysis while respecting a variety in interpretation As the overall structure of the book leads from the universal to the particular from theory to individual directors and films so its concern with religious interpretation flows naturally from the universally religious to particular religious worldviews Among world religions Christianity claims attention in proportion to its dominant cultural influence in the West where film has more obviously flourished The insights and interpretations presented in these essays will be of importance to cinema scholars film critics and students of religion and of interest to film buffs particularly those who are sensible of the religious dimension of films Der Reggeboge ,1984 The Antiques Journal ,1981
