Splendors Of Asia:

The Splendours of Asia: India, Thailand, Japan Robert Payne, 1966 The International Quarterly, 1904 The International Quarterly Frederick Albert Richardson, 1904 Asia, 1927 The Evolution of Indian Stupa Architecture in East Asia Eric Stratton, 2002

Contents I Introduction II Symbolic analysis of religious architecture III Indianization in Southeast Asia lineage one 1 Religious foundations 2 Architecture 3 Java 4 Cambodia 5 Champa IV Burma lineage two 1 Thai Era 2 The lineages of stupa forms V The philosophical Indianization of Northeast Asia the third lineage 1 China 2 Korea 3 Japan 4 Tibet 5 Mongolia 6 The Tibetan stupa Bibliography

This work seeks to explore the development of East Asian architecture based upon its borrowings from the Indian stupa While most scholars agree that some features of East Asian religious architecture have been strongly influenced by the symbolic architecture of the stupa this study specifically seeks to identify three distinct architectural lineages originating from India to East Asia These lineages were inspired by the work of Liang Ssu Ch eng who first identified several families of pagoda structures in Mainland China in the early part of the 20 century However here we extend our search to all the nations that have employed the stupa architecture outside India and Nepal These other lineages have been identified through careful analysis in archaeological anthropological historical and religious studies The first of these lineages extends through Indo China and Indonesia The second lineage is mainly found extending through Burma Both lineages one and two meet together in later Thai architecture The third lineage extends across Central Asia to the shores and nations of Far East Asia such as Japan Korea and China As all the lineages are demonstrated to be imbued and propagated by the sacred and ancient symbolism of India each chapter examines the history of Indian thought as it was introduced into a region and then discusses the features of the most well known structures of that region

the most creative and important theologians of our time He forces us to expand the horizons of our theological vision not only by drawing on the resources of Asian thought and experience but also by insisting that we do theology with passion Here he offers images fables poems parables and visions woven together with his own compelling prose The biblical stories with which we thought we were familiar become new and more compelling stories when we revisit them with this able and wise guide And our whole approach to life and living is transformed by the freshness he breathes into all that he surveys with us

Robert McAfee Brown Professor Emeritus of Theology and Ethics Pacific School of Religion In Theology from the Womb of Asia C S Song shows how the story of God s compassion in Jesus and the many heartrending stories and poems of the Asian people are reaching out towards each other Doing theology in this perspective is not a matter of application of doctrine but of recognition of a relation between the suffering God and suffering humanity which transcends many artificial and alienating distinctions The book is an appeal to Asian theologians but at the same time a necessary challenge to a Western academic theology and missionary thinking Bert Hoedemaker Professor of Missions and Christian Ethics University of Groningen the Netherlands A splendid example of doing theology with Asian resources A breath of fresh air to liven up traditional theology using original reflections and observations with the backing of close knowledge of traditional theology A book no theological college can do without Yeow Choo Lak The South East Asia Graduate School of Theology Singapore C S Song is Professor of Theology and Asian Cultures at Pacific School of Religion His recent publications include The Believing Heart The Palgrave Handbook on Decoloniality in Asia Phoebe Zoe Maria U.
