Splendors of Imperial Japan Joe Earle, 2004-04 An exhibition catalogue in full colour of some 350 masterpieces from the Meiji Period Exhibited at the Portland Art Museum Oregon in 2002 Splendors of Meiji Joe Earle, 1999 The Art of Japanese Cloisonné Enamel Fredric T. Schneider, 2015-08-28 The author has left no stone unturned We thoroughly enjoyed and recommend Glass on Metal Comprehensive Maine Antique Digest This book provides a detailed history of Japanese cloisonné enamel and the development of its many technical varieties Part One presents the 400 year history and context of Japanese enamels from their beginnings around 1600 covering the crucial decades of the late 19th and early 20th centuries extensively Part Two is organized by individual technique and categorizes and discusses the many variations of cloisonné enamel developed in Japan Integrated into both parts are biographies of many cloisonné masters along with discussions of the technical and scientific underpinnings of the craft The work is complemented by 32 color plates with 128 images an extensive glossary several appendices an extensive bibliography and a full index The Art of Peace Sir David Khalili, 2023-11-02 In 1967 Sir David Khalili finished his military service in Iran and travelled to study in the United States with 750 his remaining royalties from a book he wrote when he was just 14 Over the course of the next five decades he single handedly piece by piece assembled eight of the finest art collections in their field ultimately becoming one of the world's greatest collectors about whom Queen Elizabeth II once said It is scary how much this gentleman knows about art For the first time Sir David shares his extraordinary journey one that has taken him through the souks of North Africa the auction houses of Europe and the United States the bazaars of South Asia and far beyond Through a riveting collection of real life adventures he reveals his collecting strategy business ethics and what motivates him to continuously collect conserve research publish and exhibit the treasures in his collections Through his story Sir David questions how the undeniable power of art can be harnessed to foster greater peace and unity worldwide No one is better placed to enlighten us Since Meiji J. Thomas Rimer, 2011-10-31 Research outside Japan on the history and significance of the Japanese visual arts since the beginning of the Meiji period 1868 has been with the exception of writings on modern and contemporary woodblock prints a relatively unexplored area of inquiry In recent years however the subject has begun to attract wide interest As is evident from this volume this period of roughly a century and a half produced an outpouring of art created in a bewildering number of genres and spanning a wide range of aims and accomplishments Since Meiji is the first sustained effort in English to discuss in any depth a time when Japan eager to join in the larger cultural developments in Europe and the U S went through a visual revolution Indeed this study of the visual arts of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries suggests a fresh history of modern Japanese culture one that until now has not been widely visible or thoroughly analyzed outside that country In this extensive collection which includes some 190 black and white and color reproductions scholars from Japan Europe Australia and America explore an impressive array of subjects painting sculpture prints fashion design crafts and gardens The works discussed range from early Meiji attempts to create art that referenced Western styles to postwar and contemporary avant garde experiments There are in addition substantive investigations of the cultural and intellectual background that helped stimulate the creation of new and shifting art forms including essays on the invention of a modern artistic vocabulary in the Japanese language and the history of art criticism in Japan as well as an extensive account of the career and significance of perhaps the best known Japanese figure concerned with the visual arts of his period Okakura Tenshin 1862 1913 whose Book of Tea is still widely read today Taken together the essays in this volume allow readers to connect ideas and images thus bringing to light larger trends in the Japanese visual arts that have made possible the vitality range and striking achievements created during this turbulent and lively period Contributors Stephen Addiss Chiaki Ajioka John Clark Ellen Conant Mikiko Hirayama Michael Marra Jonathan Reynolds J Thomas Rimer Audrey Yoshiko Seo Eric C Shiner Lawrence Smith Shuji Tanaka Reiko Tomii Mayu Tsuruya Toshio Watanabe Gennifer Weisenfeld Bert Winther Tamaki Emiko Yamanashi

Splendors of Imperial Japan Joe Earle, 2002 An exhibition catalogue in full colour of some 350 masterpieces from the Meiji Period Exhibited at the Portland Art Museum Oregon in 2002 Ivory and the Aesthetics of Modernity in Meiji Japan M. Chaiklin, 2014-08-22 The opening of the ports of Japan in 1859 brought a flood of Japanese craft products to the world marketplace For ivory it was a golden age This book examines the role that ivory and ivory carvers played in the expression of nationalism and the development of sculpture in the later nineteenth and early twentieth century Challenging Past And Present Ellen P. Conant, 2006-01-01 The complex and coherent development of Japanese art during the course of the nineteenth century was inadvertently disrupted by apolitical event the Meiji Restoration of 1868 Scholars of both the preceding Edo 1615 1868 and the succeeding Meiji 1868 1912 eras have shunned the decades bordering this arbitrary divide thus creating an art historical void that the former view as a period of waning technical and creative inventiveness and the latter as one threatened by Meiji reforms and indiscriminate westernization and modernization Challenging Past and Present to the contrary demonstrates that the period 1840 1890 as seen progressively rather than retrospectively experienced a dramatic transformation in the visual arts which in turn made possible the creative achievements of the twentieth century

History of Design Bard Graduate Center, 2013-12-10 A survey of spectacular breadth covering the history of decorative arts and design worldwide over the past six hundred years Newsletter, East Asian Art and Archaeology, 1998
