Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff, Staff Bowker, Ed, 2004 Musical Pathways in Recovery Gary Ansdell, Tia DeNora, 2016-09-17 Music triggered a healing process from within me I started singing for the joy of singing myself and it helped me carry my recovery beyond the state I was in before I fell ill nine years ago to a level of well being that I haven't had perhaps for thirty years This book explores the experiences of people who took part in a vibrant musical community for people experiencing mental health difficulties SMART St Mary Abbotts Rehabilitation and Training Ansdell a music therapist researcher and DeNora a music sociologist describe their long term ethnographic work with this group charting the creation and development of a unique music project that won the 2008 Royal Society for Public Health Arts and Health Award Ansdell and DeNora track the musical pathways of a series of key people within SMART focusing on changes in health and social status over time in relation to their musical activity The book includes the voices and perspectives of project members and develops with them a new understanding of how music promotes their health and wellbeing A contemporary ecological understanding of music and change is outlined drawing on and further developing theory from music sociology and Community Music Therapy This innovative book will be of interest to anyone working in the mental health field but also music therapists sociologists musicologists music educators and ethnomusicologists This volume completes a three part triptych alongside the other volumes Music Asylums Wellbeing Through Music in Everyday Life and How Music Helps In Music Therapy and Everyday Life Here and There Stanley Cavell, 2022-01-01 The first posthumous collection from the writings of Stanley Cavell shedding new light on the distinctive vision and intellectual trajectory of an influential American philosopher For Stanley Cavell philosophy was a matter of responding to the voices of others Throughout his career he articulated the belief that words spring to life in concrete circumstances of speech the significance and power of language depend on the occasions that elicit it When Cavell died in 2018 he left behind some of his own most powerful language a plan for a book collecting numerous unpublished essays and lectures as well as papers printed in niche journals Here and There presents this manuscript with thematically relevant additions for the first time These writings composed between the 1980s and the 2000s reflect Cavell's expansive interests and distinctive philosophical method The collection traverses all the major themes of his immense body of work modernity psychoanalysis the human voice moral perfectionism tragedy skepticism Cavell's rich and cohesive philosophical vision unites his wide ranging engagement with poets critics psychoanalysts social scientists and fellow philosophers In Here and There readers will find dialogues with Shakespeare Thoreau Wittgenstein Freud Heidegger Walter Benjamin Wallace Stevens Veena Das and Peter Kivy among others One of the collection's most striking features is an ensemble of five pieces on music constituting Cavell's first discussion of the subject since the mid 1960s Edited by philosophers who have been invested in Cavell's work for decades Here and There not only gathers the strands of a writing life but also maps its author's intellectual journeys In these works Cavell models what it looks like to examine seriously one's own passions and to forge new communities through unexpected conversations Contemporary Black American Playwrights and Their Plays Bernard L. Peterson Jr., 1988-05-17 This work provides a wealth of information on obscure and overlooked American playwrights as well as some famous ones it will be a welcome addition for collections specializing in the theater arts Reference Books Bulletin This directory and index the first such volume devoted exclusively to contemporary black American dramatists will have an important place in theatre collections It captures and preserves an elusive part of artistic endeavor giving access to literally thousands of dramatic works that would otherwise be lost to scholars and the public Organized as an encyclopedia it provides information on more than 600 noteworthy Black American playwrights whose plays have been written produced or published between 1950 and the present The volume begins with an introductory essay surveying the history of contemporary black American drama Playwrights screenwriters radio and television scriptwriters and musical theatre collaborators are treated in individual entries that comprise the bulk of the book The volume also supplies a bibliography of anthologies books and periodicals cited mailing addresses for more than 200 of the playwrights and title and subject indexes International Music and Drama ,1915 Metaphysical Song Gary Tomlinson, 2014-12-25 In this bold recasting of operatic history Gary Tomlinson connects opera to shifting visions of metaphysics and selfhood across the last four hundred years The operatic voice he maintains has always acted to open invisible supersensible realms to the perceptions of its listeners In doing so it has articulated changing relations between the self and metaphysics Tomlinson examines these relations as they have been described by philosophers from Ficino through Descartes Kant and Nietzsche to Adorno all of whom worked to define the subject's place in both material and metaphysical realms The author then shows how opera in its own cultural arena distinct from philosophy has repeatedly brought to the stage these changing relations of the subject to the particular metaphysics it presumes Covering composers from Jacopo Peri to Wagner from Lully to Verdi and from Mozart to Britten Metaphysical Song details interactions of song words drama and sounds used by creators of opera to fill in the outlines of the subjectivities they envisioned The book offers deep seated explanations for opera's enduring fascination in European elite culture and suggests some of the profound difficulties that have unsettled this fascination since the time of Wagner Beyond the Dream Irene Snow, 2013-05-28 Until the age of four Irene Snow lived happily with her mother and gentle doting grandparents The return of her father a rough and tough soldier at the close of World War II set the stage for rebellion and dissent in her young life He was a strict disciplinarian and she resented his authority from the outset What's more his arrival introduced her to the baser emotions of jealousy and hatred which were previously beyond her ken as the reigning princess in Grandmas house As she grew older her life became a search to regain the pedestal she lost no matter what it took As a young woman she fell in love with a married German and had his child out of wedlock Aware of her father's deep and abiding enmity for the enemy she reveled in his displeasure he in turn vowed to disown his grandchild Irene's seven year love affair ended with her marriage to a Canadian widower but her wedding was closely followed by a tragedy that ignited her darker emotions and eventually brought her to a nervous breakdown psychosis and utter darkness She turned to the field of psychology in the hope it might shed light on her self defeating behavior While her studies provided many answers they did not lead to peace Finally she embarked upon a spiritual journey that led her to A Course in Miracles Once she began to reach out with love her life changed dramatically
