The Days Of Mars A Memoir 1940 1946:

The Days of Mars Bryher, 1971 H.D. (Hilda Doolittle) Lara Vetter, 2023-06-24 A concise biography of the modernist poet and avant garde woman H D Hilda Doolittle 1886 1961 best known for her imagist poetry was one of the first writers of free verse in English For over forty years H D wrote poetry about forgotten ancient goddesses and autobiographical prose about her own traumas and desires Dubbed the perfect bi by Sigmund Freud she was also a scholar of religion mythology and history a translator of ancient Greek and an avant garde filmmaker This new biography explores the fascinating life and work of this important but often overlooked modernist figure Thinking of the Medieval Benjamin A. Saltzman, R. D. Perry, 2022-10-13 The mid twentieth century gave rise to a rich array of new approaches to the study of the Middle Ages by both professional medievalists and those more well known from other pursuits many of whom continue to exert their influence over politics art and history today Attending to the work of a diverse and transnational group of intellectuals Hannah Arendt Erich Auerbach W E B Du Bois Frantz Fanon Erwin Panofsky Simone Weil among others the essays in this volume shed light on these thinkers in relation to one another and on the persistence of their legacies in our own time This interdisciplinary collection gives us a fuller and clearer sense of how these figures made some of their most enduring contributions with medieval culture in mind Thinking of the Medieval is a timely reminder of just how vital the Middle Ages have been in shaping modern thought The Text is Myself Miriam Fuchs, 2004 German Jewish novelist Grete Weil fled to Holland but her husband was arrested there and murdered by the Nazis Chilean novelist Isabel Allende fled her country after her uncle Salvador Allende was assassinated and she later lost her daughter to disease Winter Love Jacob Korg, 2003 Ezra Pound and Hilda Doolittle who used the pseudonym H D are among the most important American modernist poets In this comparative study Jacob Korg examines their intertwined lives from an early romantic relationship when both writers were in their early twenties through the ongoing friendship and artistic dialogue that helped shape their work Drawing on unpublished letters and manuscripts as well as published works Korg offers a fresh view of two American artists and a wholly unexpected portrait of Pound examined here for the first time through the context of a female modernist

Crafting Feminism from Literary Modernism to the Multimedia Present Amy E. Elkins, 2022-09-05 Crafting Feminism develops a dynamic study of craft and art making in modern and contemporary feminist writing In evocative readings of literary works from Virginia Woolf to Zadie Smith this book expands our sense of transartistic modernist scholarship to encompass process oriented and medium specific analyses of textile arts digital design collage photography painting and sculpture in literary culture By integrating these craft practices into the book s enlightening archive Elkins s theoretical argument extends a reading of craft metaphors into the material present Crafting Feminism demonstrates how writers have engaged with handiwork across generations and have undertaken the crafting of a new modernity one that is queer and feminist threaded messy shattered cut up pasted together preserved repaired reflected and spun out An avant garde work of scholarship this book interweaves queer research methods and interdisciplinary rigor with a series of surprising archival discoveries Making visible the collaborative creative features of craft Elkins captivates readers with generous illustrations and a series of Techne interchapters interludes between longer chapters which powerfully convey the symbiosis between feminist theory and method and detail the network of archival influences that underpin this volume s hybrid approach Foregrounding the work of decentering patriarchal and Eurocentric legacies of artistic authority Elkins champions the diverse intergenerational history of craft as a way to reposition intersectional makers at the heart of literary culture An original and compelling study Crafting Feminism breaks new ground in modernist and visual studies digital humanities and feminist queer and critical race theory

Reluctant Modernists Peter Edgerly Firchow, 2002 The essays collected here deal with modernist writers who on the whole felt reluctant about their modernist status because they believed that it was just as important to look backward as it was to look forward Indeed for most of them looking backward was more important because it was only through the past that one could understand one s proper place in the present and in the future That is why in Huxley s Brave New World it is the rejection of the past in the future and by implication in the present that makes its satire so penetrating Modernism in other words means for these writers not a radical break with the past but a continuing search for what still connects them and us vitally with it Peter Firchow Professor of English at the University of Minnesota is the author of several books on modern and modernist literary subjects including books on Huxley Conrad and Auden The publication of some of his hitherto uncollected essays in this volume is intended to honor

Childhood and Cinema Vicky Lebeau, 2008-05-15 From Lolita to The Sixth Sense the figure of the child in cinematic works has been a contested site of symbolism and controversy Childhood and Cinema examines how the child in film has ultimately been used to embody the anxieties and aspirations of modern life Vicky Lebeau investigates how films use children to probe such themes as sexuality death imagination the terrors of childhood and hope The book ranges over the whole history of Western cinema from the Lumi re brothers 1895 Feeding the Baby to Walt Disney s animation classics to Truffaut s L'enfant sauvage and recent works such as Capturing the Friedmans and Kids The figure of the child in film Lebeau argues is fundamentally ambivalent always hovering on the edge between hope and despair vulnerability and violence or pleasure and trauma and it ultimately offers a unique way of thinking about the significance of cinema itself By turns engaging thought provoking and informative Childhood and the Cinema challenges us to reconsider the child figure as a conduit for critical reflection on what it means to be human

Rediscovering Women Writers of Wartime London Evelina Garay Collcutt, 2024-02-29 This book shows the war stricken city through the eyes of five women writers whose novels vividly portray life in the Blitz This new appraisal of their work brings to light the way in which they documented the Blitz in their fiction highlighting the social changes which were taking place especially in the lives of women and leading to a fuller understanding of those turbulent times The book re evaluates the contribution of these writers to wartime literature showing how their long neglected novels focus on the experiences of individual women protagonists perceived in close relation to the menacing forces of war This title will interest all those seeking to gain further knowledge of 20th century women s writing wartime literature and social history as recorded in fiction How to Live/what to Do Adalaide Kirby Morris,2003

Adalaide Morris removes the work of the iconic writer H D from the various compartments into which it has traditionally been placed and examines what she terms the ongoingness of her writing showing her to be a playful linguistic innovator whose writings are relevant to many fields of human activity
