The Death Of Literature:

The Death of Literature Alvin B. Kernan, 1990-01-01 Looks at political and critical attacks on literature suggests that traditional literature is no longer useful to our technological society and argues that a new concept of literature is needed

After the Death of Literature Richard B. Schwartz, 1997 Schwartz speculates that Johnson who revered hard facts a wide cultural base and common sense would have exhibited scant patience with the heavily academic approaches currently favored in the study of literature He considers it probable that the combatants in the early struggles of the culture wars are losing energy and that in the wake of Alvin Kernan's declaration of the death of literature new battlegrounds are developing Ironically admiring the orchestration and staging of battles old and new superb he calls them he characterizes the entire culture war as a battle between straw men carefully constructed by the combatants to sustain a pattern of polarization that could be exploited to provide continuing professional advancement
