The Death Of The Prophet

Kenneth L. Hull

The Death Of The Prophet:

The Death of a Prophet Stephen J. Shoemaker, 2011-11-29 The oldest Islamic biography of Muhammad written in the mid eighth century relates that the prophet died at Medina in 632 while earlier and more numerous Jewish Christian Samaritan and even Islamic sources indicate that Muhammad survived to lead the conquest of Palestine beginning in 634 35 Although this discrepancy has been known for several decades Stephen J Shoemaker here writes the first systematic study of the various traditions Using methods and perspectives borrowed from biblical studies Shoemaker concludes that these reports of Muhammad s leadership during the Palestinian invasion likely preserve an early Islamic tradition that was later revised to meet the needs of a changing Islamic self identity Muhammad and his followers appear to have expected the world to end in the immediate future perhaps even in their own lifetimes Shoemaker contends When the eschatological Hour failed to arrive on schedule and continued to be deferred to an ever more distant point the meaning of Muhammad s message and the faith that he established needed to be fundamentally rethought by his early followers The larger purpose of The Death of a Prophet exceeds the mere possibility of adjusting the date of Muhammad s death by a few years far more important to Shoemaker are questions about the manner in which Islamic origins should be studied The difference in the early sources affords an important opening through which to explore the nature of primitive Islam more broadly Arguing for greater methodological unity between the study of Christian and Islamic origins Shoemaker emphasizes the potential value of non Islamic sources for reconstructing the history of formative Islam

Remapping Emergent Islam Carlos A. Segovia, 2025-10-01 This multidisciplinary collective volume advances the scholarly discussion on the origins of Islam It simultaneously focuses on three domains texts social contexts and ideological developments relevant for the study of Islam's beginnings taking the latter expression in its broadest possible sense. The intersections of these domains need to be examined afresh in order to obtain a clear picture of the concurrent phenomena that collectively enabled both the gradual emergence of a new religious identity and the progressive delimitation of its initially fuzzy boundaries.

The Sunna and the Hadith Through the Lens of the Qur'an Joseph The Monotheist, 2024-09-22 This book is the second in a series that presents an attempt to understand the Qur'anic revelation published concurrently with the first and third volumes. It continues on the work presented in the first volume of this series to propose a new interpretation of the Qur'anic revelation that is claimed to constitute a more accurate representation of the revelation. The first three volumes of this series argue that the religion of Islam or rather the numerous interpretations of Islam are unacceptable representations of the Qur'anic revelation. The proposed interpretation of the Qur'anic revelation challenges the standpoints of Traditional Islam on three key issues: inclusiveness, the sources of religious knowledge, and the composition of any acceptable Qur'anic-based interpretation of religion. Each of the first three volumes of this series is dedicated to one of these topics respectively. In this book, the stance of the proposed interpretation of the Qur'anic revelation in regard to the Sunna, teachings of Prophet Muhammad, and the Hadith reports on the Sunna is addressed. The proposed interpretation of the Qur'anic revelation recognizes in reference to the followers of the Qur'an that the Qur'an to be the sole source of religious knowledge. It does not consider the Sunna to represent an independent or complementary source of religious knowledge. Furthermore, it does not consider the Hadith to represent the Sunna nor does it consider the Hadith a source of religious knowledge. What Islam is the book talking about? Is it one Islam that around one quarter of the world's population follows? Is the Sunna a source of religious knowledge? Does the Hadith actually report on the Sunna? What of the Hadith is certain in its attribution to Prophet Muhammad? These questions and a multitude of others are addressed in this volume of the series. This book is self-contained. It can be read as part of the series or independently. It does not require the reader to have previous knowledge in any of the topics discussed. The book discusses topics you do not find in your typical book about the Qur'an or Islam. It would interest those who want to learn about the Qur'an, its message, the Sunna, and the Hadith. Among this group would be those searching for a reformed understanding of the Qur'an and how it applies today, those interested to learn about the Sunna and the Hadith, what they are and what they are not, and those interested in monotheistic religions in general.

The Prophet's Heir Hassan Abbas, 2021-02-23 The life and legacy of one of Mohammad's closest confidants and Islam's patron saint, Ali ibn Abi Talib. Ali ibn Abi Talib is arguably the single most important spiritual and intellectual authority in Islam after prophet Mohammad. Through his teachings and leadership as fourth caliph, Ali nourished Islam. But Muslims are divided on whether he was supposed to be Mohammad's political successor and he continues to be a polarizing figure in Islamic history. Hassan Abbas provides a nuanced, compelling portrait of this towering yet divisive figure and the origins of sectarian division within Islam. Abbas reveals how after Mohammad, Ali assumed the spiritual mantle of Islam to spearhead the movement that the prophet had led While Ali s teachings about wisdom justice and selflessness continue to be cherished by both Shia and Sunni Muslims his pluralist ideas have been buried under sectarian agendas and power politics Today Abbas argues Ali s legacy and message stands against that of ISIS Al Qaeda and Taliban The Essence of Islam Saiyed Jafar Reza,2012
