The Decorative Arts And Crafts Of Nantucket:

The Decorative Arts and Crafts of Nantucket Charles Hope Carpenter, Mary Grace Carpenter, 1987 The Decorative Arts and Crafts of Nantucket Charles Hope Carpenter (Jr.), Mary Grace Carpenter, 1987 American Silver in the Art Institute of Chicago Art Institute of Chicago, 2016-01-01 The history of American silver offers invaluable insights into the economic and cultural history of the nation itself Published here for the first time the Art Institute of Chicago's superb collection embodies innovation and beauty from the colonial era to the present In the 17th century silversmiths brought the fashions of their homelands to the colonies and in the early 18th new forms arose as technology diversified production Demand increased in the 19th century as the Industrial Revolution took hold In the 20th modernism changed the shape of silver inside and outside the home This beautifully illustrated volume presents highlights from the collection with stunning photography and entries from leading specialists In depth essays relate a fascinating story about eating drinking and entertaining that spans the history of the Republic and trace the development of the Art Institute's holdings of American silver over nearly a century New Solutions for House Museums Donna Ann Harris, 2020-11-17 This substantially enlarged and expanded second edition of New Solutions for House Museums Ensuring the Long Term Preservation of America's Historic Houses provides advice for historic site stewards that have concerns about the financial sustainability of their historic house museum and its relevance to its local audience Seven new case studies have been added for the second edition The new case studies reinforce the book's central argument that not every historic house museum whether founded 100 years ago or last month can be sustained long term Three of the new case studies are from diverse historic sites showcasing how African American women and other minority focused historic sites are pioneering new ways to commemorate their histories and interpret fascinating stories to visitors with the end goal of creating financially sustainable historic sites that are relevant to their audience New interviews have been conducted with the ten existing case studies from the first edition to bring them up to date The new edition adds two new reuse options to the eight introduced in the first edition This chapter describes how to identify and implement a reuse decision costs and advisors needed and tips on decision making There is a new chapter long interview with Tom Mayes Chief Legal Officer and General Counsel for the National Trust for Historic Preservation on recent legal and ethical issues facing historic sites Another new chapter provides advice on the essential role of the historic site's Board of Directors as the decision maker for any reuse exploration The second edition of New Solutions for House Museums contains a new introduction to the second edition an updated conclusion bibliography and index

Harbor & Home Brock Jobe, Jack O'Brien, Gary R. Sullivan, 2009 Presented for the first time the richly illustrated findings of the Southeastern Massachusetts Furniture project at Winterthur Museum Makers of the Piano: 1820-1860 Martha Novak Clinkscale, 1993 This book continues the overview of early pianos begun in Clinkscale's Makers of the Piano 1700-1820 OUP 1993 Although a few of the biographies overlap the majority of the makers are completely new Approximately 2,400 makers and manufacturers and about 2 200 pianos are listed Of this total about 645 are English the majority of whom were active in London more than 200 of the London makers have not been discussed in previous publications

Captain Ahab Had a Wife Lisa Norling,2014-02-01 During the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries the whaling industry in New England sent hundreds of ships and thousands of men to distant seas on voyages lasting up to five years In Captain Ahab Had a Wife Lisa Norling taps a rich vein of sources including women's and men's letters and diaries shipowners records Quaker meeting minutes and other church records newspapers and magazines censuses and city directories to reconstruct the lives of the Cape Horn widows left behind onshore Norling begins with the emergence of colonial whaling on the island of Nantucket and then follows the industry to mainland New Bedford in the nineteenth century tracking the parallel shift from a patriarchal world to a more ambiguous Victorian culture of domesticity Through the sea wives compelling and often poignant stories Norling exposes the painful discrepancies between gender ideals and the reality of maritime life and documents the power of gender to shape both economic development and individual experience

Secret Cape Cod: A Guide to the Weird, Wonderful, and Obscure Linda Humphrey,Maria Lenhart,2024-02-23 There's something about Cape Cod and the Islands that has long held fascination for fascinating people whether it's Kurt Vonnegut Jr Tennessee Williams Fred Rogers Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis or writers from the Harlem Renaissance The region was the first landing place of the Mayflower pilgrims the final resting place of John Belushi and where Maria Mitchell discovered a comet from a rooftop on Nantucket It's where Bob Dylan gave an impromptu concert for middle aged ladies competing in a mah jongg tournament It's also the domain of ghosts and spirits lurking in the stacks of old bookshops and among the rafters of sea captains mansions There are weird towers stuck in incongruous places mysterious stones and enchanting landscapes that inspired painters playwrights and the writers of children's fairy tales There are Gilded Age mansions whaling era Greek Revivals modernist cottages and rose covered bungalows fashioned from antique fish shacks Secret Cape Cod and Islands reveals the best and most unexpected aspects of the region and shows you how to experience them for yourself Want to know where to find the best places for watching a sunset swimming in hidden ponds savoring a chef prepared feast in a farm field making your own jam or seeing a play with Broadway level talent Veteran journalists Linda Humphrey and Maria Lenhart aka the Hard News Travel Team left no stone unturned while spending countless hours investigating the secret treasures of a region they have known and loved for many years

Encyclopedia of Marine Mammals William F. Perrin,Bernd Würsig,J.G.M. Thewissen,2009-02-26 This thorough revision of the classic Encyclopedia of Marine Mammals brings this authoritative book right up to date Articles describe every species in detail based on the very latest taxonomy and a host of biological ecological and sociological aspects relating to marine mammals The latest information on the biology ecology anatomy behavior and interactions with man is provided by a cast of expert authors all presented in such detail and clarity to support both marine mammal specialists and the serious naturalist Fully referenced throughout and with a fresh selection of the best color photographs available the long awaited second edition remains at the forefront as the go to reference on marine mammals More than 20% NEW MATERIAL includes articles on Climate Change Pacific White sided Dolphins Sociobiology Habitat Use Feeding Morphology and more Over 260 articles on the individual species with topics ranging from anatomy and behavior to conservation exploitation and the impact of global climate change on marine mammals New color illustrations show every species and document topical articles FROM THE FIRST EDITION This book is so good a bargain full of riches packed with fascinating up to date information I recommend it unreservedly it to individuals students and researchers as well as libraries Richard M Laws MARINE MAMMALS SCIENCE establishes a solid and satisfying foundation for current study and future exploration Ronald J Shusterman SCIENCE Selling Tradition Jane S. Becker, 2000-11-09 The first half of the twentieth century witnessed a growing interest in America s folk heritage as Americans began to enthusiastically collect present market and consume the nation s folk traditions Examining one of this century s most prominent folk revivals the reemergence of Southern Appalachian handicraft traditions in the 1930s Jane Becker unravels the cultural politics that bound together a complex network of producers reformers government officials industries museums urban markets and consumers all of whom helped to redefine Appalachian craft production in the context of a national cultural identity Becker uses this craft revival as a way of exploring the construction of the cultural categories folk and tradition She also addresses the consequences such labels have had on the people to whom they have been assigned Though the revival of domestic arts in the Southern Appalachians reflected an attempt to aid the people of an impoverished region she says as well as a desire to recapture an important part of the nation s folk heritage in reality the new craft production owed less to tradition than to middle class tastes and consumer culture forces that obscured the techniques used by mountain laborers and the conditions in which they worked
