The Writings Against the Manichaeans and Against the Donatists: Part I - The Manichaeans Revised Aurelius Augustine, 2018-07-09 Before converting to Christianity Augustine was at one time a member of a group called the Manichaeans and this collection of works are his attempt to combat the growing threat that this religion caused to the rise and growth of the Christian church The Manichaeans were a dualistic society that focused on the goodness of the spirit and the evil of the material While basing their belief structure of Mesopotamian Gnosticism it is hard to say for certain that they were Gnostic themselves Augustine shows sound arguments to counter the beliefs he reveals in this collection of writings even going so far as to have a verbal parley back and forth with a leading member of the religious movement Fortunatus Now in larger print

Richard Steele Sir Richard Steele, 1894 Redescribing Moral Agency in Sirach, 4QInstruction, and the Hodayot World Kim, 2025-05-15 This book presents the first comprehensive comparison of how moral agency is constructed in Sirach 4QInstruction and the Hodayot World Kim argues that recent scholastic studies have overemphasized differences amongst various Second Temple texts and neglected the similarities between them By employing four stages of comparison description juxtaposition re description and rectification Kim re describes moral agency in Sirach 4QInstruction and the Hodayot and aims to rectify the relationship between these texts Kim demonstrates that moral agency cannot be described by categories such as affirmation or denial and argues that such agency should instead be described in terms of degrees and shaped by various factors such as knowledge and desire that will either decrease or increase moral agency Through an extensive comparison of these texts Kim concludes that the degree to which one internalizes and actualizes the teachings of their religious text increases one s capacity for moral agency and that this agency must be conceived as dynamic rather than static
