The Desperation Day Two:

Diary of a Confused Christian Nai B Wise, 2024-03-30 This read is a self help supplement to prompt consideration of influences on life's choices and to empower one's mind to choose truth over traditions I've been triggered since I was 8 years old and the time has come for me to excavate and discover my inner contents No more going along to get along I fervently and tearfully sought answers to my questions and I found them Answers not to boast that I know more but to bring me and hopefully others peace I know these answers will trigger some folks I know these answers will make me more enemies But I do hope these answers will help someone I hope these answers will prevent physical and spiritual suicide and above all bring understanding This book is dedicated to the backslider the doubter the once faith filled turned atheist the almost reprobate and borderline blasphemer and to the King eternal immortal invisible the only wise God who is able to keep us from falling and who just wants to reason with us

Freedom from My Fears Harold Myra, 2023-08-28 Often we celebrate King David as a man after God's own heart and he was that but his spiritual successes sat side by side with anxiety desperation crushing sinfulness and repentance Harold Myra brings you alongside David to pray through the songs of David's heart This journey reveals how you too can bring your difficulties and celebrations to God in prayer

Ashes to Ashes Gideon Haigh, 2014-03-13 For the first time since the mid 1970s England and Australia faced each other home and away in back to back series in the summer and winter of 2013 Under prolific captain Alastair Cook England went into the Ashes on the back of three unbeaten series including a first win in India for more than 25 years By contrast Michael Clarke's Australia arrived in England with an inexperienced side changing their coach just weeks before the Ashes started No wonder England started as strong favourites And so it proved as England won the home series by a 3-0 margin their biggest Ashes win since the 1970s But there were signs of an Australian revival in their defeat and when England arrived Down Under they found an entire nation ready to make things different as the underdogs fought back Suddenly Australia were the better side in every aspect of the game and they won back the Ashes after three consecutive crushing victories Watching on as events unfolded was award winning cricket writer Gideon Haigh With great insight and skill he reveals the key moments of both series analysing the personalities of the players and how they coped with the most pressurised and high profile cricketing contest of them all the Ashes No other book on the subject comes close to this one in getting to the heart of the matter

Anti-computing Caroline Bassett, 2022-02-22 We live in a moment of high anxiety around digital transformation Computers are blamed for generating toxic forms of culture and ways of life Once part of future imaginaries that were optimistic or even utopian today there is a sense that things have turned out very differently Anti computing is widespread This book seeks to understand its cultural and material logics its forms and its operations Anti Computing critically investigates forgotten histories of dissent moments when the imposition of computational technologies logics techniques imaginaries utopias have been questioned disputed or refused It asks why dissent is forgotten and how under what circumstances it revives Constituting an engagement with media archaeology medium theory and working through a series of case studies this book is compelling reading for scholars in digital media literary cultural history digital humanities and associated fields at all levels

Why Has America Stopped Inventing? Darin Gibby, 2011-09-01 A thoughtful look at our history of innovation the problems with the patent system and the prospects for America's future America loves innovation and the can do spirit that made this country what it is a world leader in self government industry and technology and pop culture Everything about America has at one point or another been an experiment and a leap of faith And one such experiment upon which all others depend for success is the US Patent System Why Has America Stopped Inventing takes a close look at why this experiment appears to be failing and why America has all but stopped inventing Our belief that we are the most innovative people on earth is mistaken Statistics show that today we invent less than half of what our counterparts did a hundred and fifty years ago Where are the groundbreaking inventions comparable to those from the Industrial Revolution Why have we been using the same mode of transportation for over a century Why are we giving trillions to hostile foreign nations for imported oil when we have the talent to solve the nation's energy crisis We don't have these desperately needed technologies because regular Americans have given up on inventing This book explains why comparing the experiences of America's most successful nineteenth century inventors with those of today and sharing fascinating historical anecdotes Jefferson refusing to waste any more weekends examining patent applications Whitney being robbed of his fortune while the South's wealth exploded the patent models that kept British soldiers from burning Washington's last standing federal building the formation of Lincoln's cabinet and Selden crippling the entire US auto industry It also tells the story of the Wright brothers airplane monopoly the Colt revolver's role in the Mexican American War the Sewing Machine wars the last six months of Daniel Webster's life and the fraudulently created Bell Empire

A View from the Balcony--Opera through Womanist Eyes Jean Derricotte-Murphy, 2024-08-23 In this theological work readers are seated in a metaphorical balcony as a counter melody is composed within America's operatic tradition By using imaginary opera glasses readers are invited to critically view American society and history The most popular folk songs of white Southerners Western settlers and Northern elites were composed from chords of colonialism white supremacy patriarchy hegemony and xenophobia forms of anthropological poverty These songs were and remain the most discordant melodies heard by indigenous and enslaved persons in America Indicting the church for its complicity in these oppressions this work offers the reader a historical glimpse at the philosophical and religious underpinnings of systemic racism A new healing hermeneutic the balcony hermeneutic enables the reader to view critique assess correct and reverse the devastating consequences of anthropological poverty By taking a reversed gaze of traditional Western Eurocentric systems of knowledge production through theomusicology this work privileges the voices of indigenous scholars philosophers anthropologists theologians and performers to sing a new song as we correct negative narratives and lyrics through resistance operatic performances

Base Ten Maryann Lesert, 2009-02-01 In this wonderful first novel an astrophysicist struggles with returning to her career in science after putting it on hold for her family The Grand Rapids Press Raised to believe that she could do anything astronomer Jillian Greer dreamed of going into space When she and her research partner Kera Sullivan invented a specialized telescope it looked as though these two dogged scientists would fulfill the dream they shared But ten years later while Kera trains in a space simulator Jillian is married with children packing lunches and helping her kids with homework With her field's archaic all or nothing mindset maintaining both a family life and a scientific career seems like an impossible task As her fortieth birthday draws near Jillian decides that she must give her career one more shot Leaving her family for ten days one day for each year she has put her career on hold she seeks solitude in the sand dunes of Lake Michigan where she struggles to see if she can find her way back to the stars

The Disciples of the Night Etienne De Mendes, 2012-04 Like a craftsman weaving the finest of Persian carpets Etienne de Mendes propels the reader on an unparalleled adventure of Gothic horror and romance Isidore de Chagny world renowned Noble prizewinning geneticist has sent humankind on a disastrous evolutionary leap The financially taxed governments of the world injected their common populace with his timed death serum People start dying unpredictably at younger and younger ages Onto this intense stage walk Isidore's creations Christine Erik and Torossian Three kindred spirits brought through time by the scientific process of replication Each grapples with forming an identity and a number of profound human needs Rich political insights and cultural observations grace the daily reality of the trio Our heroine endures imprisonment at the hands of militants desperate for a cure Unaware of her peril Erik and Torossian hunt for a vast stolen treasure and in the process manage to unearth an ominous ancient creature Colorful intricately detailed and mesmerizing this fourth novel in a series about the life of the Phantom of the Opera was penned solely to entertain The curious mature adult who enjoys a perplexity along with explicit passion will not be disappointed Erik recuperates his relationship with Christine gives her an astounding gift and unites his modern psyche with his constant internal companion the infamous Opera Ghost who stalked an 1800's Paris Theater See the fire of all that I desire the blaze lights up the night You can visit Etienne de Mendes at www.returnofthephantom.com

The Last Days of Everest Dean Allen, 2010-08-04 Members of a Nepalese family are embroiled in a blood feud that is decades old The feud involves the legitimate property rights to land which members of the family have shared for over a century China to the east gets involved when she sends an emissary agent to mediate the dispute over the land in question The emissary is not forthright when he portrays the ownership of the land to be that of one of the two individuals involved in the dispute He has lied to the man The emissary had reasons of his own for the dispute to devolve into a bloody battle A massacre results with the deaths of all but the youngest son of one of the men involved in the dispute Years pass and China has found out that the Himalayan Plateau has an immense pocket of geothermal energy deep below the surface She desperately needs to gain access and control of this energy source for her to become a major world power in the next century China sees this one particular family's blood feud as an opportunity to tap this energy source with whatever means necessary and focus the blame on someone else China's plot is successful but it doesn't go exactly as planned
