The Destruct Rule:

The Destruction of Merchant Ships Under International Law Frederick Edwin Smith Earl of Birkenhead, 1917

Cultural Violence and the Destruction of Human Communities Fiona Greenland, Fatma Müge Göçek, 2020-06-02

This volume brings together leading sociologists and anthropologists to break new ground in the study of cultural violence. First sketched in Raphael Lemkin's seminal writings on genocide and later systematically defined by peace studies scholar Johan Galtung, the concept of cultural violence seeks to explain why and how language, symbols, rituals, practices, and objects are so frequently in the crosshairs of socio-political change. Recent conflicts in the Middle East, Africa, and Central Asia, along with renewed public interest in the repertoire of violence applied to the control and erasure of indigenous populations, highlights the gaps in our understanding of why cultural violence occurs, what it consists of, and how it relates to other forms of collective violence.

Prosecuting the Destruction of Cultural Property in International Criminal Law Caroline Ehlert, 2013-10-24. In Prosecuting the Destruction of Cultural Property in International Criminal Law, Caroline Ehlert offers an analysis of treaty law protecting cultural property from destruction and foremost of the relevant provisions for prosecuting the destruction of cultural property in international criminal law. The wanton destruction of valuable cultural property during armed conflict as well as during peacetime is omnipresent. Therefore, it is of the utmost importance to provide for provisions criminalising the destruction of cultural property and offering a basis for the prosecution of possible perpetrators.
