The Devonsville Terror:

ShockDecember Charles Roxburgh,2002-11-28 21 horror movies in 48 hours Had anything comparable ever been attempted Would it be possible to absorb such a volume of madness and stupidity Could we maintain our sanity after such a barrage of bad taste Out of these questions an experiment was born an experiment that will forever be known as ShockDecember Three young men push the limits of taste and sanity by plunging headlong into the movie marathon to end all movie marathons Misleading box covers Foolish teenage victims Continuity errors galore The pole vault to freedom Multiple Donald Pleasance sightings Rampaging panavans Tom Hanks and his diatribe on fear And the worm eating the glorious worm eating The mind bending experience of ShockDecember is documented within these pages Bell, Book

Nightmare Movies Kim Newman,2011-04-18 Now over twenty years old the original edition of Nightmare Movies has retained its place as a true classic of cult film criticism In this new edition Kim Newman brings his seminal work completely up to date both reassessing his earlier evaluations and adding a second part that assesses the last two decades of horror films with all the wit intelligence and insight for which he is known Since the publication of the first edition horror has been on a gradual upswing and taken a new and stronger hold over the film industry Newman negotiates his way through a vast back catalogue of horror charting the on screen progress of our collective fears and bogeymen from the low budget slasher movies of the 60s through to the slick releases of the 2000s in a critical appraisal that doubles up as a genealogical study of contemporary horror and its forebears Newman invokes the figures that fuel the ongoing demand for horror the serial killer the vampire the werewolf the zombie and draws on his remarkable knowledge of the genre to give us a comprehensive overview of the modern myths that have shaped the imagination of multiple generations of cinema goers Nightmare Movies is an invaluable companion that not only provides a newly updated history of the darker side of film but a truly entertaining guide with which to discover the less well trodden paths of horror and re discover the classics with a newly instructed eye

Horror Films Colin Odell, Michelle Le Blanc, 2008-04-28 Often subject to more cuts at the hands of the censor than a serial killer's razor the horror film has a fascinating history not only as film study but also as a look at what has been considered acceptable for the public to view and what the state will allow its citizens to see But for the most part horror films are about entertainment consistently profitable eminently enjoyable From horror cinema's beginnings in the late 19th century to the latest splatter films from the chills of the ghost film to the terror of the living dead there is more than enough here to keep fans awake at night Among the many films discussed are the popular Dracula Evil Dead Frankenstein Halloween Ringu Scream and The Sixth Sense as well as the more unusual Black Cat The Living Dead Girl Nang Nak Rouge and Les Yeux sans Visage The guide also profiles such popular directors as Dario Argento John Carpenter Wes Craven David Cronenberg Hideo Nakata and Sam Raimi as well as cult directors from around the world including Coffin Joe Jean Rollin and Michele Soavi The Cinema Coven Alexandra Heller-Nicholas, 2024-11-07 Witches and witchcraft are potent metaphors for feminine power with a history that predates the advent of cinema The figure of the witch represents a particularly fraught contested kind of gendered power and has long inspired filmmakers to explore themes of race class trauma motherhood grief and identity This book examines the relationship between women witchcraft and filmmaking exploring types of storytelling and the central themes in these movies Such films span the globe and have starred prominent figures like Madonna Bette Midler Bjork and Nicole Kidman as well as lesser known women behind the scenes Some of these filmmakers have premiered their works at major film festivals while others have produced content for television and video releases While notable in their diversity these movies share one crucial thing they were all created by women in an industry broadly dominated by men
